Speaker Deplores 'Freeway Millions, Nickels For Parks'

Recreation Commission Hears Complaints On Lack Of Action

By ROBERT M. COPPOCK

"During the last year we, the taxpayers of this state, spent over one million dollars to remodel one of the San Francisco exits to the Bay Bridge so that motorists could avoid stopping at one stop light," John Sutter yesterday told members of the State Recreation Commission.

"That is probably more money than the total amount spent by all the cities of the Bay Area to acquire new park sites during the same period of time," he went on. "Here is a symptom of our crisis in values: Millions for freeways, nickels for parks."

Sutter, president of Citizens for Regional Recreation and Parks in the Bay Region, was one of a series of speakers appearing at a conference on regional recreation problems of the San Francisco Bay Area at the Marin County Civic Center.

Almost all the complaints about lack of action came from representatives of private organizations. Governmental officials listed accomplishments and then asked where the money should come from if more is to be done.

William Penn Mott Jr., general manager of the East Bay Regional Park District, said directors were seriously considering charging park users who come from outside the district.

Several speakers suggested the answer is a single overall agency, either a regional level of government or as a unit of state government.

STATE AGENCY

Dr. Wayne McMillan, director of the Bay Area Welfare Planning Federation, called for a state agency, saying, in effect, it is impossible to assure voluntary cooperation among the many local governmental and private recreation agencies.

McMillan also noted a great disparity in the amount local governments have been willing to spend on recreation. In the five counties of the central Bay Area, he said, San Francisco is high by spending $4.94 per capita on recreation. Marin is low by spending only 80 cents per capita.

ONLY TWO

But Marin, he added, has 11 different governmental agencies interested in recreation, while San Francisco has only two.

Regional agencies can be established and do work, claimed Kenneth Hallenbeck, director of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, which operates parks in five Michigan counties.

His district, he noted, started when one man donated $40,000 for a study, has been in operation for 20 years and has a $3,700,000 budget.

SELDOM CARE

He said most of the money comes from Wayne County (Detroit), but few of the parks are there. People of the area seldom care where the money is spent because county boundaries are not meaningful to them, he said.

Frank Sylvester, regional director of the U.S. Bureau of Outdoor Activities, did not appear but sent a statement saying the federal government would probably continue to be interested only in those lands of national significance.

Mrs. Clark Kerr of El Cerrito, vice president of the Save the San Francisco Bay Assn., said plans to fill in shallow areas of the bay are destroying a valuable recreation resource as large as all the land recreation areas in Marin County put together.

She noted that four-fifths of the bay is less than 30 feet deep.

Strong support was given by several speakers for the planning work started by the Assn. of Bay Area Governments on a master recreation plan for the nine counties of the Bay Area.

However, several persons asked what agency will implement or enforce the plan once it is completed.

Sutter, at the end of his statement, suggested that major non-profit foundations

Baby Saved From Bay By Mother

Seventeen-month-old Notosho Robbins was smiling in a Marin General Hospital bed today after being rescued from San Francisco Bay yesterday by her mother.

Mrs. Margaret Robbins of San Francisco told Sausalito police she was working on a fishing boat near Caruso's Bait and Tackle Shop about 6 p.m. when she missed Notosho, who had been left on a pier to play.

Frantically scanning the water, she saw the baby's body floating nearby.

Mrs. Robbins leaped in, carried the child ashore and applied mouth-to-mouth resuscitation while Sausalito firemen were called.

Firemen administered oxygen, and took the child to the hospital. She was reported in good condition after having the water pumped from her lungs, but was held at the hospital to recover from shock.

Kennedy Marin Schedule Given

President John F. Kennedy will visit Point Reyes National Seashore the morning of Sept. 28, then fly by helicopter to dedicate the Whiskeytown Dam, northwest of Redding.

The president, starting his 10-state western tour Sept. 25, is scheduled to arrive in San Francisco Sept. 27 and remain there overnight, before heading for Point Reyes.

The earth-filled Whiskeytown Dam, 14 miles northwest of Redding, linked by tunnels with Trinity Lake and Lewiston Lake dams, completed a six-year 225-million-dollar project to conserve water.

Walkout In Alabama Resisted, Supported

COMBINED AP & UPI

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Students boycotting newly integrated Birmingham schools tried again today to promote a walkout from other classrooms. They found some support, some resistance.

A crowd of more than 400 teenagers gathered for the second day at still-segregated Phillips High School and demanded that students leave class in a sympathy protest. Some Phillips boys and girls joined the crowd, others went on to school.

Hundreds of students stayed away from integrated West End High for the fourth day in a row. Many of those who assembled at Phillips were West End absentees.

Riot-trained police forced the crowd back into a park across the street, and some students left with the announced intention to visit other schools as they did yesterday.

The caravan moved on to integrated Ramsey High, but police kept the crowd from getting within a block of the school. Then, for the first time, the demonstrators visited Shades Valley High in a wealthier section of the city, and county officers let them on the school grounds.

But teachers locked the doors and kept the Shades Valley students inside. Nearby, the school band practiced on a drill field, ignoring the crowd.

The five Negroes admitted to West End and Ramsay high schools and Graymont Eelementary all were in class.

At Tuskegee, another of the four cities where schools have been desegregated, no white students showed up at the high school. Last night a crowd of more than 800 persons began the groundwork for establishment of a segregated private school to educate white children boycotting Tuskegee High School.

"We can set a pattern for the rest of the state and the south," said former Atty. Gen. MacDonald Gallion, employed as counsel for the Macon County Private School Foundation at an organizational meeting.

Foundation officials said they were confident the private school would be as successful as those in Prince Edward County, Va., where white children have received private schooling for the past four years. The Virginia county closed down its public schools rather than integrate them, and Negroes are contesting the action in federal court.

Meanwhile, a Negro boy and girl quietly entered Mobile's Murphy High, scene of a demonstration Thursday in which 54 white students were arrested.

A group of 30 Murphy boys gathered after the Negroes already had entered. They chanted the now familiar, "Two, four, six, eight, we don't want to integrate." They were dispersed by police.

Protest Priest Is Suspended

NEW YORK (UPI) —The Roman Catholic Maryknoll Fathers have suspended a member of their missionary society, the Rev. Felix McGowan, 38, for unauthorized trips to Cuba, it was learned today.

McGowan, of New York City, lives with his father in New Rochelle, N. Y. His father said yesterday his son was not at home, but that he expected him to return shortly.

Reports from Washington, however, said the suspended priest presided at a meeting there last night of the pro-Castro AD HOC Student Committee for travel to Cuba.

Youth, 16, Cut While Halting Runaway Car

Marc Ford, 16, of 16 Hazel Avenue, Larkspur, was treated at Marin General Hospital for head cuts about 5:30 p.m. yesterday after halting a runaway car, the hospital reported.

The hospital said the accident happened in Larkspur. But neither Larkspur police nor the California Highway Patrol had a report on it.

Heaters Stolen

RAWLINS, Wyo. (AP)—Warden Leonard Meacham reported today the wall heaters installed in the Wyoming penitentiary's main cell block are missing.

Cuban Visit Backers In New Dispute

4 Ejected From House Hearing In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Backers of students who went to Cuba in defiance of a government ban staged another demonstration today at a House hearing, and four were forcibly ejected from the room. (See also page 2.)

Police carried two out bodily.

The demonstrations began when Philip A. Luce, 26, of New York, who was in the witness chair, made some remarks about Negro voting in Louisiana and Virginia.

SPECTATORS APPLAUD

There was applause from spectators.

"Okay, throw them out," Chairman Edwin E. Willis (D-La.) said, and police moved in on the leaders of the applause.

Another young man had been thrown out of the building earlier for haranguing police in the corridor outside the hearing room.

He was one of about 50 young people in beatnik clothes who milled around outside the room after being denied admission by police seeking to avert a renewal of yesterday's near-riots.

OTHERS WATCH

Others in the crowd stood silently and watched as police grabbed the noisy youth.

He was identified as William Massey, 28, tall blond New Yorker whose shouts inside the committee room late yesterday helped touch off the second of two small-scale riots.

It was Massey who, after yesterday's hearing recessed, started shouting "Cuba is freer than Louisiana" — the home state of Edwin E. Willis, the committee chairman.

Police said today's struggle developed when Massey began asking them questions and haranguing the crowd outside the hearing room and refused to step back. Then he was taken out, shouting all the way.

About 40 young men and women who had been kept out of the hearing went to the committee's offices on the floor below and sat down in the hall.

They tried to display hastily scrawled signs saying, "Why were we banned?" and, "The Nazis are inside, why not us?" But police snatched the signs from their hands, telling them it was against the law to display such signs in the Capitol.

Chile Celebration, Parade Wednesday

Sausalito's celebration of Chile's independence day, which will include a parade of fire equipment on Bridgeway and ceremonies at the firehouse, will be held starting at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday. It will not be held today as was reported erroneously in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

The city's special Chilean guest, Jose De Gregorio, secretary general of the Christian Democratic Party, is visiting the city's industries in Marinship today.

Goerndt Ordered To Vacate Office

To Get Pay Till Oct. 6

By BRUCE COLEMAN

He was told that his pay will continue until Oct. 6 when his discharge, made Aug. 7, becomes effective.

Sgt. David Cooper, with the Sausalito Police Department eight years, was named acting chief by Brown.

Goerndt and his lawyer, Harry Wainwright, said the firing will be fought "all the way."

'EVERYTHING INCLUDED'

"They include everything you can think of," exploded Wainwright today. "He (Goerndt) doesn't get up on the right side of the bed."

He listed these charges made by Brown: "Failure to perform duties failure to assume administrative responsibilities, failure to give leadership, general inefficiency, and personal behavior unbecoming an officer."

"We intend to fight with everything we have all the way," the attorney said. "We don't intend to spare any effort to show the citizens of Sausalito, and the city council, just what Mr. Brown is up to. There is not one charge or detail backing a charge which cannot be controverted and disproved as fact."

'CALLED BROWN WRONG'

Wainwright claimed the reason for the firing is "because he (Goerndt) had the audacity to suggest that Mr. Brown's opinion is wrong."

Brown could not be reached today. His secretary gave the Independent-Journal this statement from the city manager:

"As of this date the request by Police Chief Howard Goerndt through his attorney, Harry Wainwright, to specify the authority by which he was removed as police chief and

VIETNAMESE PICK UP PRO-AMERICANS

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAIGON, South Viet Nam—The South Vietnamese government today was reported quietly picking up persons who might act against the regime should the United States decide to back a coup d'etat.

Suspicion between high Vietnamese officials and Americans deepened with the increased pace of charges over the handling of the Buddhist crisis and the struggle against the Communist Viet Cong guerrillas.

Informed sources said President Ngo Dinh Diem, angered over advice given him by U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, fears a U.S.-backed coup and is enforcing security precautions against the possibility.

The sources said government agents had arrested a Saigon university professor and a prominent lawyer in their round-up of persons suspected of strong opposition to the Ngo family regime.

Diem and his powerful brother and chief political adviser, Ngo Dinh Nhu, showed no signs of following Lodge's advice that Nhu be dismissed from his position of high authority.

In Belgrade, Yugoslavia, a Ceylonese delegate today challenged Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu's version of the Buddhist crisis in South Viet Nam. He called their treatment by President Diem's government a "serious violation of human rights and a threat to world peace."

Maithripala Senanayeke, chief Ceylonese delegate to the 61-nation interparliamentary union, was replying to Mrs. Nhu's denial that there was any persecution of Buddhists in Viet Nam.

"Would Madame Nhu's government permit an impartial inquiry through the medium of the United Nations so that the truth might be known to the world?" he asked.

The dynamic first lady of South Viet Nam, unable to answer from the floor because of conference rules, scheduled a news conference for tomorrow to answer.

Engle Held Suffering From Tumor

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Three California newspapers said today that Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.) is suffering from a brain tumor that has left him partially paralyzed and unable to talk.

The San Francisco Examiner quoted Washington sources as saying Engle is near death. The paper said he is suffering from brain cancer.

The Los Angeles Times said that doctors "are fighting to save his life" and that the senator may never be able to speak or move normally. The paper said the tumor, discovered during brain surgery three weeks ago, is unoperable.

Forest Fire Loss Under Average

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California forest fire losses for the first seven months of this year are well below the average, according to the State Department of Conservation.

Some 14,000 acres were burned this year, compared to an average of 78,700 acres for the same seven-month period in each of the preceding five years.

The low losses this year were attributed to low temperatures and mild winds.

Glasses Wardrobe

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Uhlemann Optical Co. said today the average American woman with glasses has 3.5 pairs and the men average 1.7. The firm said a study showed that people get different glasses for different occasions and end up not with a pair of glasses—but with a wardrobe of them.

Skies Clear Up After Brief Rain

The skies cleared over Marin County today and the temperatures were to warm up over the weekend in the wake of yesterday's rain storm which left the largest amounts of rainfall in Sausalito and Tiburon.

Rainfall amounts were so small, County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom said, that fire season restrictions will remain in effect in areas under jurisdiction of the county fire department.

Measurable rainfall in the county included: Sausalito, .3 of an inch; Tiburon, .28; San Rafael, .10; Chevy Chase district of Larkspur, .06; San Anselmo, .04, and Woodacre, .03.

Mickey Rooney Is Dad For Seventh Time

A 6-pound, 9-ounce daughter was born by Caesarean section at Santa Monica Hospital today to the actor's fifth wife, the former Barbara Thomason. Rooney is in Yugoslavia, acting in a movie.

Kennedy To Address General Assembly

NEWPORT, R.I. (UPI)—President John F. Kennedy will address the United Nation's General Assembly next Friday, the White House announced today.

Kennedy will be the second speaker, taking the time that had been allotted to Canada's representative. The president telephoned Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson to thank him for his courtesy.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Three Bodies Found In House Ruins

VACAVILLE (AP) — Three bodies, two with bullet holes in their heads, inside the ruins of a house jarred by an explosion presented police with a mystery today.

An added part of the story was the discovery of six dead dogs at the scene. Three, police noted, had been suffocated by plastic clothing bags before the explosion yesterday afternoon.

Found inside were the bodies of Air Force T/Sgt. Pedro Montano, 35; Henry H. White, 45; and Montano's wife Georgia, 38. Police said she had married Montano in April, 1962 several months after her divorce from White.

Montano's body was found in bed, with a bullet hole in his skull. White was found on the living room floor of the $30,000 house, a single bullet hole directly in the center of the back of his head.

The woman was found sprawled out of a window, from which neighbors reported she screamed for help. She had not been shot, but died of suffocation.

Firemen reported an inflammable fluid had been poured in the house.

Legion CO Urges Castro Overthrow

Foley

He said history has shown "time and time again that the course of extremism, either to the left or to the right, is the course of failure."

He said Red Cuba is the springboard for introduction of propaganda, sabotage and potential revolt in some areas of the hemisphere.

Chile's Coalition Cabinet Resigns

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—President Jorge Alessandri's coalition cabinet resigned last night in protest against congressional approval of a reform bill sought by striking Public Health Service workers. The strikers staged a mass demonstration earlier.

The cabinet members balked at a Communist-sponsored bill that would appropriate 2.5 million dollars for loans to the strikers while a permanent settlement is being negotiated.

Johnson Cancels Greenland Visit

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (UPI) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, nearing the end of a 15,000-mile tour of northern Europe, today canceled his last stop—a brief visit to Greenland.

An announcement said "the press of business in the United States made it impossible" to go on to Greenland.

Korea Prison Demand

SEOUL (AP)—The prosecution demanded today a 12-year prison sentence for retired Lt. Gen. Kim Dong-ha, a former junta official, on charges of plotting to overthrow the government of strongman Gen. Chunk Hee Park.

The prosecution also asked an army courtmartial to impose the same sentence on retired Brig. Gen. Park Chang-am, 40, chief prosecutor at revolutionary trials that sent hundreds to prison after the 1961 military coup. The coup ousted President Syngman Rhee and brought Park into power.

Capitol Police Alert For More House Un-American Violence

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Police were assigned to positions in the wings at a congressional hearing today to cope with any repeat of the violence that disrupted an investigation of an illegal, Castro-sponsored student trip to Cuba.

The hearing of the House Committee on Un-American Activities broke up in pandemonium yesterday when police were forced to eject 15 kicking, screaming spectators during a wild melee.

The youthful hecklers, shouting "Fascists!" and "Racists!" at the committee members, clashed with police twice during the hearing after ignoring repeated demands for silence from Rep. Edwin E. Willis (D-La.), committee chairman.

There were these ingredients for possible violence again today:

A "busload" of reinforcements was said to be on its way to Washington from New York to aid the demonstrators, who said they planned to be on hand for a second round at the committee hearing today.

A small group of members of George Lincoln Rockwell's extremist American Nazi Party, who inadvertently missed yesterday's stormy committee session, planned on being present in force today.

If necessary, the committee could hold the session behind closed doors, or postpone it, or even cancel it.

Behind the apprehension of the committee and the police was the memory of yesterday's disturbance.

The hecklers, many of them in beatnik clothes, were strongly opposed to the committee's investigation. The violence was sparked by the testimony of Levi Laub, 24, of New York City.

Willis adjourned the hearing after Laub said the Cuban trip was aimed "at the same kind of racists who are sitting up here in front of me now."

The committee identified Laub as a former Columbia University student who organized the visit of 59 U.S. students to Cuba this summer in defiance of a State Department ban.

Laub said he was "damn proud" of his membership in the progressive labor movement, which the committee called a Communist splinter group.

The leadoff witness, Barry Hoffman, 26, of Brookline, Mass., was a voluntary "undercover agent" in the Cuban tour.

He also said that some of the students cheered when shown films of a U.S. plane being shot down in South Viet Nam. Laub later called Hoffman a "rat" and the trouble began.

But violence trailed the student group last night. Four Nazi Party members attempted to break up a meeting at the Presidential Arms Hotel. The session, which was led by the Rev. Felix MacGowan, a Roman Catholic priest who recently returned from a trip to Cuba, was held by the group that sponsored the two-month trip to Cuba.

Enraged members of the audience pounced upon the four and beat them, forcing them out of the hall before police could arrive from the street where other Nazis were picketing the meeting. The Nazis were arrested and charged with disorderly conduct.

During the meeting speakers scored the "police brutality" they claimed marked the afternoon committee session.

When Willis finally adjourned the hearing, someone in the packed House caucus room shouted at the top of his lungs: "Racists, go home!" and the melee broke out again.

About 50 uniformed Capitol and District of Columbia policemen and plainclothes detectives struggled through the big room herding fist-fighting demonstrators and spectators out into the marble corridors.

"There is more freedom in Cuba than there ever was in Louisiana," someone yelled in an apparent reference to Willis, a Louisiana native. But the committee chairman already had left.

In the final scuffle, one demonstrator was knocked to the floor. While police tried to pick him up, an older man kicked him in the face. Suddenly a fight broke out in the center of the room. Police, spectators and even photographers surged back and forth. Seats were overturned.

Felon Commitments Fall Off Sharply

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Male felon commitments to the Department of Corrections fell sharply in rate last year.

Commitments last year amounted to 28.5 per 100,000 population, compared to 35 per 100,000 the preceding three years. The rate last year was the lowest since the rate of 26.6 in 1955.

New Airborne Radar Screen Protects U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force disclosed today that an airborne radar screen is keeping a missle defense watch along the eastern aproaches to North America.

Lt. Gen. Herbert B. Thatcher, commander of the Air Defense Command, anounced that four-engine patrol planes, operating out of Otis Air Force Base, Mass., maintain surveillance by means of a new electronic defense known as Airborne Long-Range Input.

Thatcher said the ntw system atained operational status this week following extensive operational tests.

Record $128 Million To School Building Aid

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The State Allocation Board approved a record 128 million dollars in school building aid facilities for the first seven months of this year.

Signs are the dollar volume at the end of this year may top the record of 205 million dollars set in 1959.

'Blood Bath' Feared Should Rockefeller Run In California

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Times quoted Republican National Committeeman Joseph L. Martin Jr. yesterday as saying he fears a GOP "blood bath" should New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller field a presidential delegation in California.

Political writer Carl Greenberg, who said he talked with Martin in a telephone call to San Francisco, said Martin advised Rockefeller forces of his beliefs.

Martin said, however, he was informed by George L. Hinman Rockefeller has every intention of running in the California primary. Hinman is the GOP national committeeman from New York and the Rockefeller family attorney.

SWAMPED AT FEEDING TIME

Marty Reed of Garland, Tex., just doesn't have enough hands when it comes to feeding time for five lively pet squirrels. But Marty doesn't mind, he feeds them with doll bottles as they climb all over him. He found them three weeks ago in their nest in a tree after the mother had been shot. (AP Wirephoto)

JFK SAYS INTEGRATION GOING AT RIGHT TEMPO

President Also Gives Views On Test Ban Treaty, South Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy says he thinks "we are going at about the right tempo" on racial integration and that he does not believe Americans will make the "fatal mistake" of dividing politically along racial lines.

He said the recent desegregation of schools in 150 Southern cities "is an impressive story" reflecting great credit on Southerners who put respect for the law above emotion.

The president gave these views yesterday in a news conference during which he also put in another strong plug for Senate ratification of the limited nuclear test ban treaty, announced he would address the United Nations next month, and defined U.S. policy in South Viet Nam.

Asked about a Gallup poll in which 50 per cent of those replying thought he was "pushing integration too fast," Kennedy said he thought the figure was accurate.

But he said he considered it "rather impressing" that another 40 per cent replied that the pace was "more or less right."

He said "change always disturbs, and, therefore, I was surprised that there wasn't greater opposition."

Bringing up the school desegregation subject in an opening statement, Kennedy had high praise for "the vast majority" of Southerners.

He noted that five federal judges who signed a school desegregation order in Alabama "were all from Alabama, all grew up in Alabama, and I am sure shared the views of the majority of Alabamans who, I think are not for desegregation, but, nevertheless, met their responsibilities under the law."

He also mentioned school desegregation in South Carolina, Florida and Georgia, and said it added up to "an impressive story."

Politically, he said, "I don't know what 1964 is going to bring" but "I think a division upon racial lines would be unfortunate.

"Over the long run we are going to have a mix. This will be true racially, socially, ethnically, geographically, and that is really, finally, the best way."

He said in reply to another question he is not considering a stronger executive order aimed at eliminating discrimination in housing.

On other subjects:

TREATY: President Kennedy's voice took on an edge when he rejected the arguments of opponents. "We can't turn our back and tell 90 nations that now signed it that the lid is off, the atomic age has come in all of its splendor, and that everyone now should begin to test in the atmosphere which, of course, everybody would have to do if this treaty fails."

VIET NAM: "We want the war to be won, the Communists to be contained and the Americans to go home. That is our policy."

ROCKEFELLER: With a big grin, and tongue obviously in cheek, Kennedy said he was prepared to accept the blame for Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's recent withdrawal of a 1962 campaign pledge not to increase taxes in New York.

GOLDWATER: The president also drew laughter when he said he was not yet ready to comment extensively on attacks by Sen. Barry Goldwater, a possible Republican candidate to oppose him in next year's presidential election. But Kennedy was serious in denying there were any secret commitments made to obtain the test ban treaty, as a questioner said had been hinted by Goldwater.

PAKISTAN: Kennedy said he did not think Pakistan would make an alliance with Communist China in retaliation for U.S. aid to India.

Unification Extension Is Granted

The state Board of Education yesterday granted Marin County's request for a one-year extension to the state deadline for presenting a county-wide plan for school district unification.

Marin County's request was granted along with one-year extensions to 13 other counties.

If the State Board of Education had not granted the request the state education department would have taken over unification planning for the county.

Under the extension the Marin County Committee on School District Organization must submit its plan by Sept. 15, 1964.

Beer License Is Suspended

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control announced it has ordered an indefinite suspension of the on-sale beer license of Adam Jackson, Pig Haven, at the southeast end of Richardson's Bay Bridge on Highway 101, Mill Valley, will revoke it if the license is not transferred to a qualified person in six months.

The suspension was to take effect upon service of notice.

The licensee had been charged on several counts, including permitting the licensed premises to be used as a disorderly house, including assault with a deadly weapon, curfew violation, disturbing the peace, grand theft, and resisting arrest.

Talk On Colombia

Harald C. Brown, formerly a missionary in Colombia, will tell of his experiences in that country at 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Seventh-Day Adventist Church, 75 Park Road, Fairfax.

'Pals' Braden, Rafferty Reject Santa Cruz Bid

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—With its frequently feuding president and executive officer displaying conspicuous harmony, the State Board of Education declined yesterday a bid to try settling a bitter school districting fight in Santa Cruz County.

Thomas W. Braden, board president, and Dr. Maxwell Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction, explained that the amiability evident in their meeting conduct had resulted from a truce lunch in Sacramento last month.

Before then, Braden and Rafferty had been exchanging disputing statements with such heat that Gov. Edmund G. Brown suggested a peace meeting with him. However, Rafferty and Braden got together by themselves while Brown was touring Europe.

An antagonist in the Santa Cruz district reorganization fight called it a "Hatfield and McCoys" battle that could be settled only by outsiders.

Phil Patton, president of the Scotts Valley Elementary School District, asked that the board reject Santa Cruz County's request for a 90-day extension on submitting a master plan for school district reorganization.

He said that bad blood existing between the city of Santa Cruz and its suburbs made trying to create a unified district "an exercise in futility." He argued that the proposed unified district would be dominated by Santa Cruz trustees.

Also yesterday the board called for a supreme effort by parents and faculty members to prevent school drop-outs in the crucial first six weeks of the new school year.

Offering the resolution, Mrs. Talcott Bates of Carmel, declared the critical drop-out time was the beginning of the school year.

The resolution declared school drop-outs were a costly waste of the precious resource—the talent of youth.

Gallinas Village Is Seeking Help With Petitions

Directors of the Gallinas Village Community Services District voted last night to advertise for help in circulating petitions for annexation of the district to the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District.

One member of the board will offer petition carriers $2 a name in the district's effort to gain the signatures of owners of 75 per cent of the assessed valuation in the annexation area to force the annexation without a vote.

The district is short of its goal by about 7 per cent. Deadline for the petitions is Sept. 30.

Two directors, Chairman Allan Gwynne and Herbert Belben, were absent.

The Jewish War Veterans was established 67 years ago by Civil War combatants.

Local Cancer Society Activities Reviewed

A review of the greatly increased local activities of the American Cancer Society was given at the annual general meeting of the Marin Branch at the Meadow Club, Fairfax, last night.

Dr. Gerald Hill, president, said all phases of the branch's service to Marin residents had been stepped up. For example, over 24,000 free dressings were distributed through the program carried out in conjunction with the Order of the Eastern Star. Also, about 16,000 Marin residents had been shown the educational film "Is Smoking Worth It?", and almost 3,000 enquiries from the public had been answered.

Marin had also been chosen as the "test run" county for the new educational trailer which was recently stationed at key locations throughout the county.

Taking over the presidency of the branch from Dr. Hill will be John T. Schmitz. He urged strong action on the smoking program as this was one solution that was readily available. Of the school children in the United States today, one million will die of lung cancer if present trends should continue, he declared.

Guest speaker was Dr. Byron Hall, formerly professor of medicine at Stanford University and now engaged in cancer research.

He outlined work being done in research of chemical treatment of cancer, usually in conjunction with radiological treatment. He also discussed the evidence which pointed to the virus origins of some cancers, especially leukemia, and stated that there was much hope for the future in this approach.

Officers elected for the coming year were: President, Schmitz; president-elect, Dr. William Galeno; vice-president, Mrs. H. B. Hennessy; treasurer-secretary, Arthur W. Relfe; district governor, Dr. John H. Manwaring.

Committee chairmen assignments will be: Service, Mrs. John F. Ahearn Jr.; professional education, Dr. Russell Klein; public information, Paul N. Brand; epidemiology, Mrs. Kenneth McKeough; fund raising, S. N. Smiley; residential campaign, Mrs. John Horton; business and industry, Douglas Weddell, by-laws, Robert Praetzel; nominating, Dr. William Galeno, and Mobile unit, Dr. G. William Magladry.

Board Due Retirement Proposals

The Marin County retirement board and County Administrator Alan Bruce met yesterday to try to iron out differences over what kind of retirement system should be provided for county employees. They agreed to disagree.

So two proposals will be presented to the board of supervisors Tuesday. The proposal by the retirement board would cost the county $157,000 more than the present system if put into effect Oct. 1 as planned. The supervisors have provided for it in the budget over Bruce's objections.

Bruce, in meetings with the county counsel and an actuary, has worked out a compromise plan which he says will cost the county less money and provide less benefits, but which will also require smaller contributions than employees are now paying. He said the complicated proposal would be tied in with Social Security.

Bruce said he does not know exactly what his compromise proposal would cost the county. He said a three-month actuarial study would be needed to find the cost, but he is sure it would be less than that proposed by the retirement board.

If there were no change in retirement plan, the cost to the county would be $275,750 for the 1963-64 fiscal year. The $157,000 was tacked onto that.

'Food For Freedom' Rights Drive Ending

A "Food for Freedom" drive, to provide food, clothing and financial assistance for persons dislocated by the civil rights contest in the South, will wind up tomorrow with collections at several depots in Terra Linda and Marinwood.

The drive is to help in the fight for civil rights—primarily the vote for Negroes—"and not for integration," Mrs. Victor E. Sloman of San Rafael, chairman, said today.

also as to specific charges for his dismissal have been delivered.

"Pursuant to law these charges are confidential and may be released only at the discretion of Mr. Goerndt. They were based, however, upon the general lines of my original notice of termination of Aug. 7, 1963. Mr. Goerndt has also been relieved of his position with pay until the actual date of his termination.

"Under the civil service procedures of Sausalito, he has three days in which to answer the charges and 10 days in which to request a hearing before the board of review."

Goerndt could not be reached for comment.

Cooper said he was called back off vacation today, to take over as acting chief. He has been four years as a sergeant.

Cooper took an examination for police chief after Chief Louis P. Mountanos was elected sheriff. After no Sausalito officer passed an examination which was open to outsiders, the city council rescinded the requirement for a 70 per cent passing grade and a second exam was given. On it, according to then Mayor Howard Sievers, Goerndt and Cooper "virtually tied." Their scores were never announced. The council decided in closed session to give the job to Goerndt, who had been acting chief since Mountanos left.

The Sausalito City Council voted Sept. 3 to hold an open examination for a police chief. It also rescinded the resolution which abolished requirement for a 70 per cent passing grade.

Swimming Out In Lakes Of Marin

Swimming will not be permitted in lakes of the Marin Municipal Water District when the State Division of Beaches and Parks takes over 17,600 acres of the district's watershed lands for use as a park.

William R. Seeger, district manager, said swimming is prohibited by the state water supply law in drinking water reservoirs. Boating will be restricted to boats without motors.

An Independent-Journal story yesterday quoted Harry Dean, supervisor for the regional office of planning and development of the State Division of Beaches and Parks, as saying that preliminary plans had been made for swimming facilities at Bon Tempe and Lagunitas Lakes.

However, Seeger said that the water district board and Edward F. Dolder, chief of the division, had agreed "to no swimming, period."

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed mixed today in heavy trading.

The ticker tape lagged behind transactions as stock milled inconclusively in the cautious pre-weekend session.

U.S. Smelting, up and down all day, showed a loss exceeding a point in late dealings.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.2 million shares compared with 5.54 million yesterday.

RECREATION

could greatly help the recreation effort by buying large open spaces near metropolitan areas and then giving the development rights to the state, retaining farming rights until they recoup their investment.

The question of home rule was raised several times by Mrs. Dewey J. Forry, of Marinwood, chairman of the state commission. Elmer Aldrich, chief of the State Division of Recreation, said Californians seemed to be more jealous of local control than people of any other state.

Subdivision Land Urged For Parks

The state planning commission, meeting at the Civic Center today, informally decided to make a push for legislation to encourage or require subdividers to make available land for local parks.

"I live in a tract and I know what happens when a developer builds up an area solid," commented commission chairman Mrs. Dewey J. Forry of Marinwood.

The recommendation will probably be a part of the 16th annual recreation commission report to the governor, now being prepared. Legislative action, however, would have to wait for the next general meeting of the state legislature in 1965.

Mrs. Forry appointed commissioners Nicholas Roosevelt and Larry M. Smith to a committee to aid the staff in working out a suggested list of criteria for grants of money to counties under the proposed 1964 bond issue for local parks.

The proposed bonds issue for state beach, park, recreational, and historical facilities will, if passed by the voters, provide 40 million dollars for grants to counties.

After the suggested criteria for grants is submitted to the commission, hearings will be held throughout the state so that local governments and civic groups may suggest changes.

Afghanistan Queen Visits In Sausalito

Queen Homaira of Afghanistan paid a brief visit to Sausalito at about 11 a.m. today. She bought a small stuffed cat for a little girl she met on the ferry boat Berkeley, and a tin of imported candy for herself.

She left the ferry boat, which houses the Trade Fair, for San Francisco where she and her husband, Mohammed Zaher Shah, are making a day and one-half visit. With Queen Homaira were her entourage and State Department officials.

OBITUARIES

John Swan Of Fairfax Dies At 90

John J. Swan, 90, of 24 San Gabriel Drive, Fairfax, former controller of Barnard College in New York City, died today in a local hospital after a short illness.

Swan, a native of Washington, D.C., had lived in Marin County since retiring in 1948. He was a life member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Beta Theta Pi, Sphinx Head and San Anselmo Post 179, American Legion.

Swan, a lieutenant colonel in the Army during World War I, served on the general staff in Washington as a consulting engineer and efficiency expert. He also served on the committee for classification of personnel.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Virginia Hotchkin of Fairfax and Mrs. Katherine Swan Workes of Corte Madera, seven grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services, under auspices of the San Anselmo American Legion post, will be held Sunday at 8 p.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be private.

Merchants Order Map Of Fairfax

The Fairfax Merchants Assn. approved production of a map of the Fairfax area including trails, lakes and historical points of interest last night.

George Pagni, president, said blueprints of the map would be ready in about three weeks.

Association members also decided to have an association emblem, which could be placed in business windows, he said.

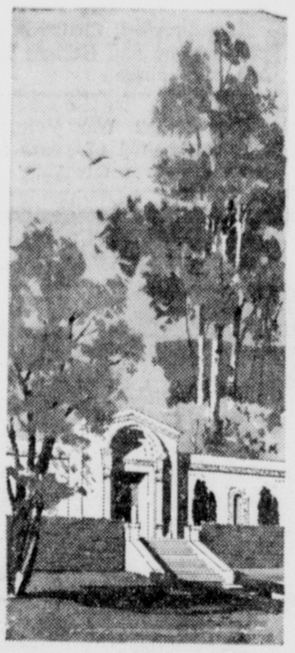
MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY in the Heart of our County



Marin pioneers chose a site in the heart of our county as a final resting place for their families. Today this location—at the west end of Fifth Avenue in San Rafael—is still convenient to all Marin points.

Marinites who choose Mount Tamalpais do so with the assurance that its beauty will grow with the years. The interest from a quarter-million dollar endowment fund—twice the legal requirement—is dedicated to the constant care and improvement of this 57-acre site.

Perhaps—like many Marin families—you wish to make your own final arrangements to spare others difficult decisions. If so, we invite your inquiry or a personal visit.

I-J Garden Page Wins Top Award

The Independent-Journal has won the top award for its weekly garden page from the California Assn. of Nurserymen, Alfred M. Pettler, director of public relations for the association, announced today.

The I-J won over all other entries in its division of 50,000 circulation or under. The awards will be presented at the association's convention in San Diego Sept. 24.

In Poor Condition

Owen Skaggs, 77, of 1529A San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, remained in poor condition today at San Rafael General Hospital after being taken to the hospital Wednesday with injuries suffered in a fall in his home. Skaggs was found by his landlord, Henry Muller.

COLLEGE BECOMING 'MACHINES' SLAVE'

Data Processing Called More Pampered Than Students On Marin's Campus

Discussion before the Marin Junior College District Board brought out that data processing machines used for registration are more pampered than the students.

Dean Ellsworth R. Briggs of adult education reported his department had 1,147 registrations and expected the total with last night's added registrations to come to between 2,700 and last year's total of 3,000.

Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy reported she had received numerous phone calls from both day and evening students complaining they had not been able to sign up for desired classes.

Diamond acknowledged many students "probably were disappointed" when they found both day and night classes closed to them. He added, "All in all I think registration went pretty well."

Here College President Stephen E. Epler spoke up: "We're working with data processing machines. We're still new at it. We hope eventually to make the machines slaves to people instead of the other way around."

It was then that Mrs. Deedy expressed alarm over a report that the machines had to be kept at a constant temperature.

Business Mgr. Norman Bird confirmed this. He and Epler said they understood the machines had to be kept at 68 degrees.

Bird added that if the cards fed through the machines are soggy the machines go on strike.

Homestead Meet Set

Homestead Valley Improvement Club directors will meet Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Jo Schlesinger, building superintendent, 328 Ridgewood Avenue. The board did not meet this week.

Tide Lots Fill Is Requested

Mrs. Allan H. Beckwith of Daly City has applied for an Army Corps of Engineers permit to fill to an 11-foot level tide lots along the east side of Strawberry Point in Richardson Bay.

The area proposed to be filled by mud dredged from a 50-foot canal along the southern edge of the property and deepening of a portion of the Salt Works Canal, extends 800 feet out into the bay on one side and 900 on another.

The area would take 81,000 cubic yards of fill. It would be surrounded on three sides by canals. The third canal is the existing privately maintained canal on the west side of the property.

A permit issued by the engineers is given only on the basis of whether the project would infringe on navigation rights.

Objections to the application may be filed in triplicate by Oct. 11 with the U.S. Army Engineer District, Corps of Engineers, 180 New Montgomery Street, San Francisco.

Pox Quarantine Lifted

VIENNA (AP) — Hungarian authorities today lifted a 13-day small pox quarantine at Budapest's Royal Hotel and allowed about 300 tourists to leave for home.

Trustees Finally Let Gym Complex Contract

Five weeks after opening of bids, a contract finally was let last night for a new College of Marin physical education complex.

Construction on the other side of College Avenue from the Kentfield Campus will start today, said structural engineer Mark Falk of Falk and Booth, architects and engineers.

The Marin Junior College District board voted to accept the low bid of Ralph Larsen and son of South San Francisco at $1,618,313—minus $137,834 in items changed or delayed by arrangement between Falk and Booth and the contractor.

The change order is less than the 10 per cent reduction which the county counsel said the board might make without calling for new bids. The reduction was made because the bid exceeded the architect's estimate by $334,739.

After last night's meeting trustees spent about 20 minutes signing a large quantity of blueprints and other documents to authorize the work.

The Marin Junior College District board also:

1. Hired Harding and Associates of San Rafael to make soil tests and supervise site filling for the new area at a cost of $3,000 to $4,000, and Abbott Hanks to test structural steel.

2. Received a report from Business Mgr. Norman Bird that the Associated Students Store made a net profit of $9,529.47 in the year ended June 30, but still owes the college district $10,393.57. The board commended Larry Shuster, the store manager.

3. Approved a pay hike of $450 a year for business instructor John C. Bruce, who had studied the necessary semester hours to rate a higher classification; and approved T. Howell Breece, former acting head of English, as head of the department.

4. Employed oJhn O. Douglass, graduate of a college manpower training class, as gardener at $410 a month; and Walter C. Gee of Santa Venetia as building inspector for the physical education complex at $775 a month.

5. Hired Denny V. Lawrence, Fairfax reserve policeman, at $2.25 an hour as fulltime campus policeman effective today. Lawrence is to tag cars for illegal parking.

6. Approved a recommendation by College President Stephen E. Epler to ban use of the boat house at Bolinas station by outsiders. Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy urged that weeds and debris be removed and windows repaired, terming the building "a disgrace."

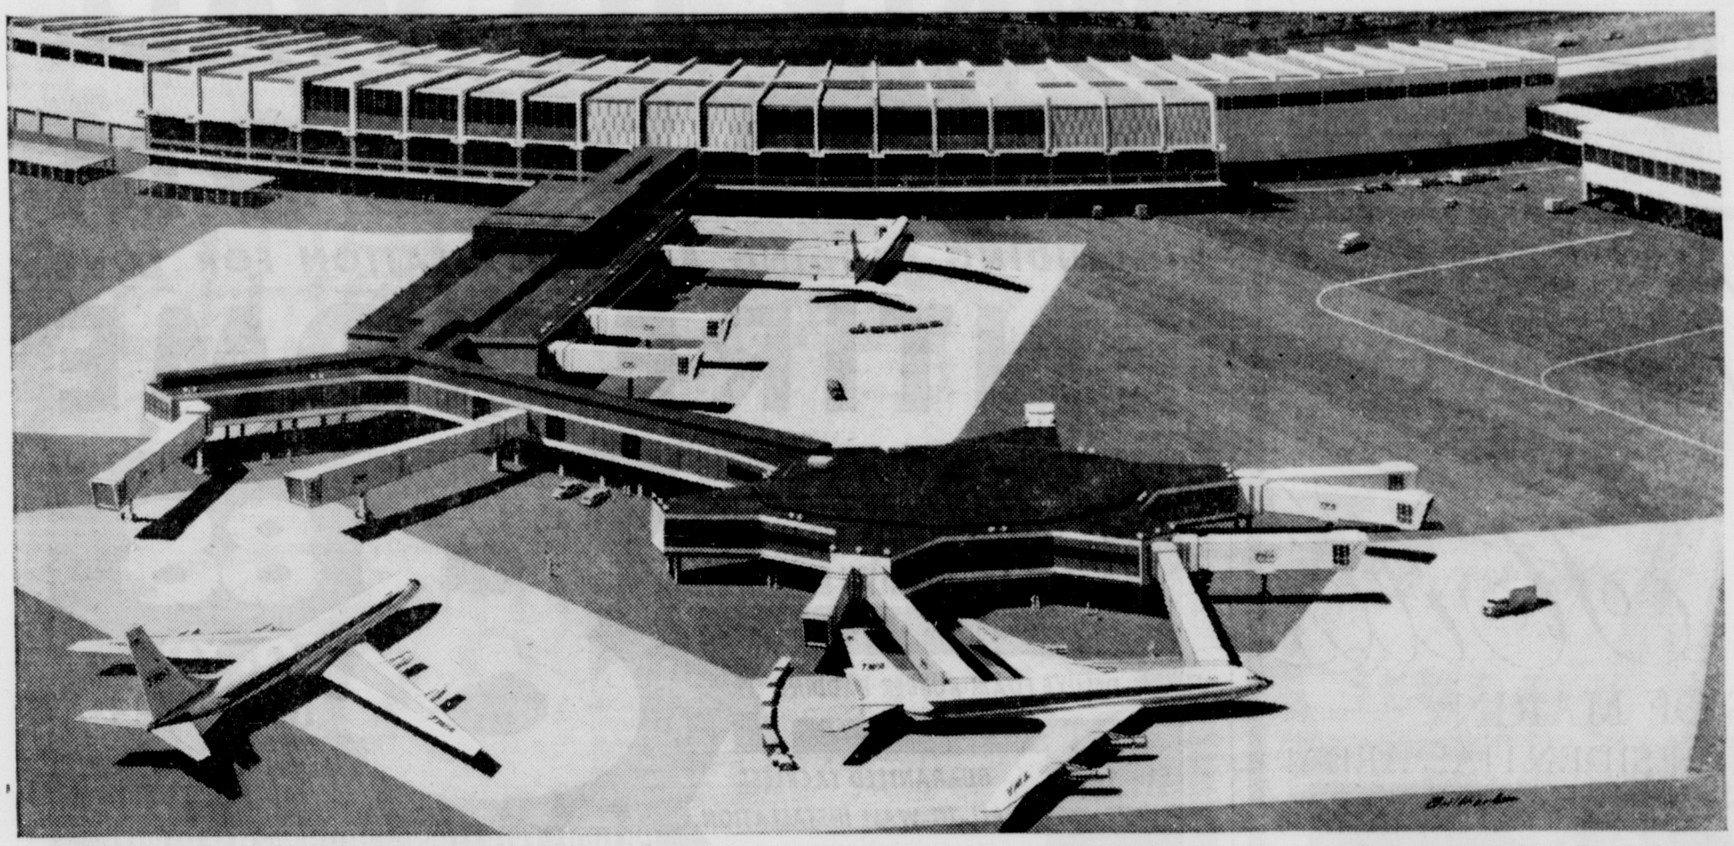
7. Authorized Epler to negotiate with Kentfield School District over .37 of an acre near the physical education site that it wishes to buy from the college district.

German Shepherd Bites Boy In Mill Valley

Mrs. R. F. Kemp reported to Mill Valley police at 6:35 p.m. Wednesday that her son, Harry, had been bitten "very badly" on the left side and left arm by a German shepherd dog.

The dog, owned by John Shea of 75 King Street, has had necessary rabies shots, Shea said. Police asked Shea to keep the dog chained for two weeks.

New for you when you fly TWA from San Francisco!



TWA's new "satellite" boarding area (foreground) has telescoping ramps to speed your departures and arrivals. Beyond is the main building of the new South Terminal.

Twenty service counters assure you of fast, effortless check-in at any time of the day.

You enter from this upper level, directly to TWA's boarding concourse and other facilities.

The new South Terminal at San Francisco's International Airport is a symbol of civic progress, and TWA is proud to be a member of the team that made it a reality. As the biggest tenant in the beautiful new terminal building, Trans World Airlines will offer travelers the finest in jet service, including—

• Most modern facilities: telescoping ramps, electronic Solari flight information boards, "carousel" baggage delivery, plus U.S. Customs offices.

• Easiest interline connections. Incoming flights from across the Pacific and from up and down the coast arrive just a few steps away from boarding locations for eastbound TWA jets.

• One-airline service to major cities throughout the U.S. and to 15 world centers in Europe, Africa and Asia—only on TWA.

• Two great ways to Europe: Polar Route to Paris nonstop, and on to Milan and Rome, or daily by way of TWA jets to New York with no change of terminal.

For further information and reservations on TWA jet flights, call Trans World Airlines at 388-3723 or your travel agent.

Wine Is Sloshed On Officers Saving Man

Two California Highway Patrolmen were sloshed with wine early today grappling with a 270-pound man who said he wanted to jump off Golden Gate Bridge "over a girl."

"Lemme go, lemme jump!" officers T. E. McGuire and A. J. Corvino quoted Edward Roy Whitworth, 25-year-old, five foot 11-inch beer truck driver of San Francisco.

Yellow Cab driver Willie More said Whitworth hired him in San Francisco to drive to Marin County. When the cab reached the toll plaza about 3:20 a.m. Whitworth jumped out of the cab, saying:

"I'm goin', dad! I'm goin'."

Radio word was flashed to McGuire and Corvino, who were at the North end of the bridge. The officers rushed south and seized Whitworth. What they didn't know at first was that he was carrying a half full bottle of wine, with the top off.

The uniforms of Officers Corvino and McGuire were well wet down with wine," said the report sedately.

Whitworth was cited for attemped suicide and turned over to San Francisco police, who took him to San Francisco General Hospital for observation.

Grand Jury Hears About New Laws

Under a new law passed by the Legislature, a grand jury may have to wind up its business by the end of each calendar year, and a new one be impaneled at the first of the following year.

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety appeared before the Marin County Grand Jury yesterday to report an amendment to Penal Code Section 933. Under the amendment, grand juries must submit their final reports to the presiding judge by Dec. 31 of each year.

Although the amendment does not say so specifically, this may have the practical effect of having a new grand jury selected in January each year, Garety observed.

Another change in the penal code is this: Grand juries, hereafter will not have to report on the financial condition of hospital districts. They can confine their audits to other county offices.

"I think this is a good law," said Grand Jury Foreman Edwin A. Wells, "because the hospital district has its own audit annually anyway. An audit by the grand jury would only be a duplication of effort."

Foreman Wells reported that Garety's announcements took up the bulk of yesterday's grand jury meeting. The next grand jury session is set for 7:30 p.m. Sept. 26.

San Rafael Women Hurt In Highway Crash

A San Rafael woman was bruised about 9:40 a.m. yesterday when her station wagon was hit in the rear by another station wagon on Highway 101 just south of Black Point Cutoff, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Officer Ray Kirner said the northbound car of Barbara Duane Lee, 36, of 711 Monticello Road, was hit by a car driven by Donald H. Charlton, 38, of Two Rock Army Station. Mrs. Lee was to see her doctor.

Tocaloma Bridge Due Replacement

The scenic, but obsolete, Tocaloma Bridge east of Olema will be replaced.

The State Department of Public Works today awarded Ghilotti Brothers, Inc. of San Rafael a $229,834 contract for the job.

The bridge across Lagunitas Creek will be along Sir Francis Drake Boulevard about two miles east of Route 1 at Olema.

The state also anounced today that a mile along Highway 101, north and south of Freitas Parkway, will be beautified.

The State Division of Highways anounced the Edgewood Farms and Gardens of Banning submitted the low bid of $75,629 for landscaping roadside areas and installing an irrigation system along Highway 101 from three-fifth of a mile south of Freitas Parkway to two-fifths of a mile north of the parkway.

Launch Capsizes —Sailor Missing

PORT JEFFERSON, N.Y. (UP) —A Navy launch with 21 men aboard capsized early today in the choppy waters of Long Island Sound. Twenty of the men were rescued, and one man is reported missing, the Coast Guard reported.

The launch, a 26-foot fiber glass capsized 1,000 yards from shore as it was ferrying the men from shore leave to the destroyer Hazlewood, here for antisubmarine tests.

People Too Shy?

DARLINGTON, England (UPI) —Lecturer John Pottinger, commenting on the failure of a single pupil to enroll in night-school courses on sex and courtship, said yesterday, "It seems most young people are too shy."

Burly Deputy Sheriff Aids Mother In Delivering Baby

A burly deputy sheriff, who helped break up a gang fight at Juanita's Galley last March, served as a gentle midwife this morning when the stork arrived unexpectedly in Marin City.

Deputy Raymond L. von Savoye received a frantic call that a woman was in labor about 5:30 a.m. The officer put in a rush call for an ambulance, then sped to the home of Yvonne Allan at 313 Drake Avenue, Marin City.

"I assisted in completion of the delivery," Von Savoye reported. "I freed the umbilical cord which was looped around the baby's neck. On freeing same, the child started breathing and crying. I informed the mother that she had just had a daughter."

A few moments later, Bob Parker, co-owner of Marin Ambulance, arrived with attendant Steve Leonik. The two ambulance men and Deputy von Savoye succeeded in cutting and tying the umbilical cord.

Both mother and child were then rushed to Marin General Hospital.

Von Savoye and Deputy George Johnsen were the two officers who waded in barehanded to stop a brawl by about 40 rioters at the Galley last March 22.

Sorority To Wash Cars To Raise Funds

Members of Phi Epsilon Gamma, an honorary physical education sorority, will wash cars at two Marin service stations Sunday to raise funds for their group.

Car washing operations are from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. scheduled at the Fred Jandura Chevron station, 103 East Blithdale Avenue, Mill Valley, and at the Shelly Flying A service station in Corte Madera. Funds will go toward the group's professional activities.

Man Is Facing Escape Charge

A Tomalas father, who walked out of Marin County Jail last week on work furlough and kept on walking, faced an escape charge today in Marin Municipal Court.

Rodney Junior Cox, 37, was recaptured in Santa Rosa Wednesday night.

He was convicted of failing to support his family and began serving his jail term on Aug. 12. On Sept. 4, he left county jail for work on a promise that he would return to the jail at night. But he failed to check in. The district attorney lodged an escape charge against him.

Telephone Meeting

NEW YORK (UPI) — International Telephone and Telegraph Co., yesterday announced it will hold its next regular monthly meeting of the board of directors in West Berlin.

Gets Jail Term In Knife Attack

Patrick M. Daniels, 18, of Novato, who attacked a friend with a knife during a barn dance last July, must spend the next two weekends in Marin County Jail.

Daniels, who lives at 1672 Center Road was sentenced yesterday by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Municipal Court. Daniels pleaded guilty to misdemeanor assault. In addition to the jail term, Daniels is on probation for two years.

Annexation Recommended

Annexation of three north Marin elementary school districts to the Petaluma Elementary School District was recommended Wednesday by the Sonoma County Augmented Committee on School District Organization.

The proposal, if approved by the state Board of Education, would mean voters in Lincoln, Union and Laguna districts would vote on such annexation. The proposal is expected to be discussed also by the Marin augmented committee.

Representatives of the three districts already have expressed their desire to maintain their "status quo" rather than being annexed, William Manning, superintendent of Petaluma schools, reported.

The Marin districts did not send representatives to the Sonoma County meeting in Petaluma where the vote was taken recommending annexation. Sol Fishman, representative of the Petaluma district on the Sonoma augmented committee, had been instructed to vote as the Marin districts voted; since they were not represented, Fishman abstained from voting on the motion.

The move is part of Sonoma County's effort to meet state requirements that counties ultimately come up with an overall scheme for school district unification.

The three districts now are in the separate Petaluma High School District.

College Board Votes Demolishing Houses

Demolishing of 11 houses in Kentfield for College of Marin expansion was voted last night —but only after a protest over parking on Laurel Avenue.

As the Marin Junior College District board discussed the matter, Mrs. E. M. Travers of 16 Laurel Avenue arose in the audience to ask what the board planned to do about parking in her area.

"There are cars parked on both sides of the street, making it difficult for us who live there to get in and out," she said.

She said when persons who park cars in driveways are asked to get out of the way "they resent it."

Mrs. Travers commented at length after college President Stephen E. Epler urged the board to grant Mrs. Katherine Malcolm an added extension to Nov. 1 to move out of her home at 3 Laurel Avenue, one of those purchased by the college district, because she recently underwent surgery.

Epler said the 10 houses on Laurel Avenue and one on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard are worth nothing as salvage. He recommended they be demolished in one operation early in November.

Mrs. Travers told the board: "By Nov. 6 we're apt to have four feet of water in the street."

Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy said the district was trying to clear up the entire problem of parking in the area. Trustee Robert E. Oliver told Mrs. Travers: "I suggest you raise a big discussion before the county." He said it was county jurisdiction to control parking there.

Board President Robert E. Rogers told her the board would do all possible to help solve the problem.

Edward Hodges of Kentfield, College student body treasurer and volunteer Kentfield fireman, said the fire department would be glad to demolish the buildings by burning them as a drill.

The board authorized Epler to arrange demolition of the houses in the cheapest way possible.

Escaped Prisoner Gets One-To-Life

Henry Wozniak, 32, from San Diego who escaped from a San Quentin forest camp last year and was captured during a burglary in San Francisco, will be returned to the prison on a one-year-to-life sentence.

The sentence results from his conviction in Mendocino County on charges of escaping from the Parlin Fork Conservation Camp on Dec. 14, 1962. He was apprehended in San Francisco during a burglary and also convicted there on burglary charges. Wozniak entered San Quentin in 1958 after a burglary conviction.

Teller Says Ports Not Safe In Attack

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Dr. Edward Teller says seaports of the United States would be vulnerable to direct atomic attack and might also be inundated by tidal waves caused by offshore nuclear explosions.

The University of California physicist told a meeting of the Pacific Coast Association of Port Authorities yesterday that "it is impossible to make port facilities resistant to attack."

But he recommended underground storage of building materials, fuel, ship provisions and conventional explosives for use in clearing away bridge wreckage blocking navigation.

Three New Restaurants Planning To Open Soon In Marin County

Planned for an opening about Oct. 1, or shortly thereafter: The Casa Linda, a new Mexican restaurant to be operated by Phyllis and Carlos Mendoza who have had one going under the same name for the past five years at Geary Street and Third Avenue, San Francisco.

This will be on the Miracle Mile, at 2214 Fourth Street, San Rafael. The building is already architectured for something like this; Phyllis and Carlos are now in the process of making it more so. It will be completely decorated Mexican style inside, and also on the outside patio area where 15 to 18 tables will be placed. They plan to have a sort of Indian market there on Saturday afternoons.

Look for enchiladas, tamales, rellenos, a special tostada Casa Linda and another tostada filled with crab and lobster. Also American sandwiches and salads, and take out orders. A wine and beer license has been procured, and California wines will be served.

Casa Linda plans to be open seven days a week for lunches and dinners from 11 a.m. to about 11 p.m. or possibly midnight.

ALSO AROUND OCT. 1, the Pandora Restaurant, new venture of Jim Pias in San Anselmo, should be opening. This is where the Fleur de Lys used to be.

LIN FA GARDENS (another new restaurant) is scheduled to get in operation around the middle of October, in the Northgate Shopping Center.

Owner Mrs. Ethel I. Barrie, former proprietor of Saj Wu Garden in the Westlake Shopping Center, Daly City, has moved to San Rafael to be near her new project.

There will be a cocktail lounge called the Mai Tai Room, specializing in Polynesian drinks. Food will be Chinese and American, and the Lin Fa Gardens will also be open seven days a week for luncheons and dinners.

NICE FAMILY PLACE is the Red Room in Larkspur—just a block away from the movie house. In fact, Charlie Dulcan says the better the movie the more customers he gets. Many folks, he explains, like to make the early show and do their dining afterward.

Vi Looby prepares quite a variety of items here, and you can settle for a complete dinner at $2.50 (entree: deep fried prawns) or one for $5.50 for the filet mignon. There are some excellent in-between selections—and a few half-portion orders for the youngsters.

Red Room makes its own cheese cake, pies and pastries.

THIS IS the time of year again when that noble game bird, the pheasant, makes its seasonal appearance. We don't know anyone who's more skillful in preparing just so—a shade or two milder than wild-flavored—than Alfred Roblin at Ondine, Sausalito.

If you like the traditional ceremony of having it brought to you in all its feathered glory, then order it "en plumage." It's roasted, of course, and prepared with three delicious sauces.

Or—try it sauteed, then finished off with a most subtle sour cream sauce and served with wild rice. This is "pheasant Vladimir"—and I believe I like Vlad's idea even better.

AT PIER 16, Sausalito, a cocktail period from 5 to 7 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays now carries a 40-cent base price for drinks. You'll notice here that the Bamboo Inn upstairs is now Pier 16 South. Owner Eugene Treasrau of the restaurant now owns the 23-room hotel as well.

CABARET TAX BREAK. The Internal Revenue Service has finally agreed to follow the courts' interpretation of a much disputed application of the 10-per cent Federal Cabaret Tax. Restaurant and motel customers, even though present during the entertainment period, no longer must pay the tax on food and refreshments ordered and served beforehand.

Heretofore restaurants have been obliged to extract 10 per cent from a customer who, say, arrived for dinner and then stayed on for a show later in the evening, with his bill still unpaid by curtain time. Patrons can now enter, order and be served before the show or dancing period and be free of cabaret tax, even though the check is paid later. Orders and service after the entertainment starts are still subject to the tax.

Agriculture Dept. Up, Farmers Down

NEW YORK (UPI)—While the number of farms and farm workers in the United States has dwindled considerably since 1935, the number of persons employed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture has increased 43 per cent, according to the Tax Foundation Inc.

There is now one USDA worker for every 28 farms in the country, compared with one employe for 80 farms in 1935.

Airlines' Golden Age Predicted

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The airline industry, booming in recent years, will continue to boom in the future, two experts predicted at a meeting of the Northern California Associated Press News Editors Conference last night.

N. E. Halaby, Federal Aviation Agency administrator, and W. A. Patterson, president of United Air Lines, outlined the prospects of their industry during a dinner meeting at the Hilton Inn.

Halaby predicted a "Golden Age" for airlines, observing that airlines stocks have currently risen at a rate of two and one-half to three times over other stocks on the market.

ROSS DELAYS ON TWO VIOLATIONS

Council Allowing Unlawful Business To Continue For Period Of One Month

The Ross Town Council last night decided to hide its head in the sand for one month.

Specifically, what the council did was to let two conditions exist in violation of the zoning ordinance. Mayor Harry C. Scott said, "We will hide our eyes from enforcement."

The council permitted Raymond St. Louis to continue operation of his new Ross Valley Yellow Cab Co., even though the business is being conducted in a residential zone at 49 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Councilmen, determining that the taxi service was needed, decided to put off until Oct. 10 a decision on granting a franchise to St. Louis.

Scott said it would be the first franchise granted by the town and the council should have time to study its implications. Under a temporary license, St. Louis will be able to park his cab north of the bus stop on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Councilman Roy Farrington Jones said the taxi service "is a good idea, but I don't like to see a subversion of the zoning ordinance."

An oral application by Mrs. Armstrong Palmer, newly arrived from Spain, to give violin lessons at 72 Poplar Avenue was "informally" approved without a vote for the next month.

Mrs. Palmer said she had rented the residence with the understanding from the real estate agent that she could give music lessons and had scheduled pupils to begin Monday.

The council instructed Mrs. Palmer to make a formal application at its Oct. 10 meeting at which time a change in the definition of a private school would be considered to permit the use.

The Ross Town Council also:

1. Instructed Police Chief Joseph Regoni to check homeowners near Redwood Drive to determine interest in sharing the $1,200 cost of drainage repairs in the area.
2. Adopted a resolution for the additional one-cent gas tax passed by the legislature.
3. Agreed to the extension of a fire line on Ivy Drive for $5,000.
4. Decided to put two "slow to 20 miles per hour" signs on Lagunitas Road near Willow Avenue.
5. Granted salary increases to city employees which had already been budgeted.

Las Gallinas Vote Split

The four remaining directors of Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District last night split 2-2 on appointment of a director to replace R. N. Sundquist, who resigned from the board early in August.

Four names were considered: those of Jack Baken, W. E. Brook, Fred J. Mahr Jr. and Charles A. Manning.

The matter was referred to the district's attorneys for a ruling on what to do next.

The board approved purchase of a pickup truck from Ames Ford Sales, San Rafael, for $1,859.81, and another from De Long Chevrolet, San Rafael, for $1,996.28.

Two bids were opened on the realignment of Miller Creek, expected to cost about $20,000, and were referred to the engineers for evaluation. The contract will be awarded at a special meeting Sept. 25.

Six To Graduate At Guide Dogs

Six blind students and their dogs will be graduated tomorrow in ceremonies marking their completion of four weeks training at Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc. in San Rafael.

Graduations ceremonies, open to the public, will begin at 2:30 p.m. and include a demonstration of the use of guide dogs and a speech by Paul Putman, legislative advocate of the California Medical Assn.

Graduating from the school on Los Ranchitos Road, will be Norma Jean Baker, Denver Colo.; Mrs. Barbara Cook, Panorama City, Los Angeles County; Rose Mary Frick, Glendale, Ariz.; William Hildebrand, Albuquerque, N.M.; Mrs. Donna Langan, Tucson, Ariz.;and Dr. Nik Troubetzkoy, Sunland, Los Angeles County.

Los Angeles has the highest ratio of residents born in another state of any large metropolitan area in the nation.

Marin As Aviation Gateway Just Maybe Could Happen

Marinites hardly flew off on wings of joy at a recent pronouncement by Rep. Don Clausen that this county might well become the "aviation gateway to the Bay Area."

Yet there's a great deal to support the theory that this may ultimately be the fact.

Certainly the present county airport north of Novato is hardly going to handle the job. But Clausen says he expects to keep pressing for a parallel runway for civilian use alongside the main runway at Hamilton Air Force Base; and we believe he can win on at least that much, provided the hard noses of the Washington brass finally wear down a bit from constant attrition.

Clausen was careful to say he didn't want to see defense facilities impaired, meaning Hamilton. That is hardly a main worry.

Without getting into the deep water of considering just what future defense use Hamilton has, in view of the way any next major war is due to be handled on a basis of information available to anyone able to read, it certainly can be said that expert opinion has cleared the parallel runway project (under CAA handling of the Hamilton control tower) as offering no menace to Hamilton's own operations.

The real worry comes in the basic thought of channeling major Bay Area civilian plane operations through Marin County, which can hardly emerge from such a change without a lot of impact on our way of life.

The increase of traffic, both land and air, could become terrific. Yet Marin certainly offers vast possibilities over either San Francisco International Airport or the Oakland operation now in a period of revival.

But it all fits in with such tidings as a Marin growth of 9,300 residents in the year ending July 1, a rise of 5.7 per cent to a new total estimated by the California State Department of Finance at 173,900. (By now we're bumping 175,000, presumably.)

Marin County seems to be destiny's tot, like it or not. Such being the case, we should at any rate get on with ways to make our growing pains as easy as possible. One way might be to figure out a second bridge to San Francisco, naturally without inconvenience to anybody on the Tiburon Peninsula or elsewhere. Such things no doubt are simple when you know how.

A New Gold Rush, Under The Sea

Shades of the '49ers! Lucky they can't know that in a day when still productive gold mines of the Mother Lode and the Comstock are shut down due to low price, subterranean gold miners plot expeditions from Tiburon.

The Bureau of Mines plans to send out a manned submersible outfit to work at 1,000-foot depths or more. This doesn't sound like anything economically feasible, however interesting as experiment, but naturally a government bureau isn't out to compete with private industry in such a field.

Sense is lent the matter when it is realized that all sorts of minerals, not just gold (an ingredient of sea-water, incidentally) are to be sought—copper, iron, manganese, nickel, cobalt and so on. The scientists just want to know, and aren't sure what they'll literally "come up with."

In a way it's the days of '49 all over, with any number of prizes possible.

Continued U.S. Deficit Seen As Biggest Present Danger

By LYLE C. WILSON

THE CLEAREST and most present danger to the welfare of the United States lies in its endless deficit operation at home and abroad, not in the fate of the test ban treaty.

The voters and politicians who are in a lather about what the treaty would do to national security would do better to consider what already has overtaken the first line of American defense. The first line of defense is the U.S. dollar, its integrity, stability and value.

This first line of defense is being breached by a lack of confidence in the integrity, stability and value of the U.S. dollar. There is nothing spectacular about lack of confidence.

It is not possible to finger any specific calendar date in recent years and to assert that on this day lack of confidence began. It is like tuberculosis in that both diseases long can flourish in the system without spectacular symptoms.

AND THEN, perhaps when it is too late, the disease makes itself known and the patient is confronted with a life-or-death crisis. So it could be with the U.S. dollar. Misconfidence in the dollar was acknowledged in fact last year when President Kennedy assured the world that he had no intention of devaluing the dollar.

Speculation that Kennedy would be compelled to devalue was based on the fact that there had developed a severe drain on U.S. gold reserves. The drainage was to foreign creditors of the United States who chose to collect in gold rather than dollars.

This drainage continues at an alarming rate despite Kennedy's efforts to stop it and the administration's acknowledgement that the end result could be very serious if the drainage continues.

GOLD RESERVES amount now to approximately 15.6 billion dollars, of which about 12 billion dollars must be held by the Federal Reserve System to the extent of 25 per cent of the Fed's notes and deposit liabilities.

The remaining 3.6 billion dollars is free gold, available to foreign creditors who may prefer gold to dollars. But the sum of foreign claims that could be levied against this 3.6 billion dollars of free gold amounts to about 20 billion dollars.

If the foreigners demand gold when all of these claims comes due, the United States will not be able to pay up. The Republican Congressional Committee is warning that misconfidence in the dollar could cause a run on U.S. gold.

That, in turn, would require drastic action here, either to repeal the 25 per cent gold backing for Federal Reserve obligations or a devaluation of the dollar by increasing the price of gold. Or, as the committee suggested, both.

THESE FOREIGN claims are created by one of the two menacing deficits—a deficit in our trade and spending relations with the rest of the world.

The other deficit, of course, is in the federal budget. This deficit tends to rot the dollar by diminishing its purchasing power. In terms of 1939 purchasing power, today's dollar is worth about 45 cents. It will shrink to two bits and maybe to a dime in your life time and mine, too, unless the voters get smart.

THE CYNIC'S CORNER By Interlandi

"Where can I join the young independents?"

'SEE—I TOLD YOU HE'D JUMP OUT'

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Plunder With No Risk

Editor Independent-Journal

The National Assn. of Real Estate Boards recently adopted a "Property Owners' Bill of Rights" which included the following:

"The right to own and enjoy property according to his own dictates and the right to occupy and dispose of property without government interference in accordance with the dictates of his own conscience."

The NAREB have been critized rather sharply for this, especially by the men of the pulpit, one of whom interpreted it to mean, "that property owners should have the legal right to discriminate against Negroes." I am not in the real estate business, nor do I hold any brief for realtors, yet the language used in the above quotation embraces all property owners, be they Negroes, Caucasians or Orientals. So if one is of fair mind in interpretation as to discrimination, one would have to concede that the Negro would have the right to exclude a White from occupancy, or re-sale.

Our legislators and citizens at large have become confused and led away from the fundamental principles of property rights as set forth in our Constitution. This principle was admirably ennunciated by Supreme Court Justice Stephen J. Field in the case of "Munn vs. Illinois" in which he stated:

"The same liberal construction which is required for the protection of life and liberty, in all particulars in which life and liberty are of any value, should be applied to the protection of private property. If the legislature of a State, under pretense of providing for the public good, or for any other reason, can determine, against the consent of the owner, the uses to which private property shall be devoted, or the prices which the owner shall receive for its uses, it can deprive him of the property as completely as by a special act for its confiscation or destruction. If, for instance, the owner is prohibited from using his building for the purposes for which it was designed, it is little consequence that he is permitted to retain the title and possession."

Anyone who takes time to check the records and facts, will come to the realization that we have a national epidemic of running to the government whenever a problem of social, economic, human relations and political confronts us. We are petitioning the state to help us in face of proven facts that government cannot grant privileges to some without adding to the labor of others. Thus, the state (government) is looked upon as the great fantasy through which everybody tries to live at the expense of everybody.

In short, we seem to want all the advantages of plunder, without the shame or the risk.

What Site For M.V. Library?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

As Park and Recreation Commissioner of Mill Valley, I have been asked to express my personal views relative to the use of city land as a library site.

As a supporter of the library and a member of the Park Commission, I am torn between two desires.

I will agree, the use of city land has its appeal. It is quite a saving to the taxpayers and will have a sales value in selling the bonds. The only city land acceptable for this purpose is park land, and even some of the most ardent supporters of this plan agree that the use of heavily used Boyle Park for a library site would be economically foolish.

That leaves Old Mill Park which does have, at present, unused portions that would be suitable for such a purpose. It could be built, I am told, so it would blend into the area, and except for parking, even add to its rustic beauty. Since it is now unused and city owned, it would seem logical we should proceed without delay.

On the other hand, Golden Gate Park, one of San Francisco's proudest possessions which cut a giant swath from the heart of the city, to the ocean shore, "four and one-half miles long and nine blocks wide," has in this area many unused portions. Land in a city which is limited in growth by its boundaries, has a high value, and could give a saving to the taxpayer if put to a more useful purpose. I wonder what the reaction would be if so advocated, and the visions of John McLaren be a forgotten thing.

We are told that by condemnation or other legal means, the restrictions in the deed, giving this land to the city, can be broken, thus clearing the way for the erection of the library. I wonder if this would be "keeping faith" or setting an example of appreciation for one man's generosity of the past for the benefit of the taxpayer of the present.

I agree we have unused park land—unused as of today. If we are thinking of today, then let us proceed without delay.

I am for the library. I will work for it, I will donate to it, I will vote for the bonds to support it and will urge others to do so. If it is to be put on park land, it changes the picture for me, and I am sure it will do the same for others. The votes we gain on one hand, I think, we will lose on the other.

Doggone! Mighty Fine Work!

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Many thanks to San Rafael police headquarters and the quick action of our "great sheriff" here in Marin City Friday evening, Sept. 6, for the return of our four-months-old Boxer in four hours.

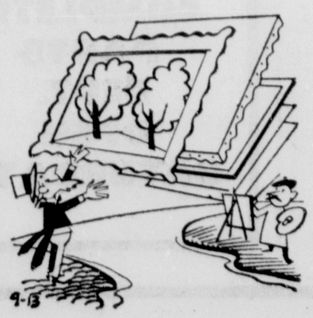
TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Dr. W. S. Constable of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, observed in an essay, "At the turn of the century, American art collectors were keen on French paintings. It is well known that Corot painted about 3,000 very fine pictures and that about 5,000 of these reached the United States."



A young bride in distress called her father and wailed, "I'm afraid I've married a drinking man. All last night Oscar kept mumbling in his sleep, 'No, Sidney, no. I don't care if it's free; not one more drink for me'."

Interrupted the father wistfully, "Did Oscar happen to mention any address?"

Currently popular is the story of the marriage consultant who was trying valiantly to reconcile a warring couple. "Why can't you get along with your wife?" he demanded of the troubled husband. "I'm not the one to blame for all this," replied the husband, "but what's-her-name there keeps yapping that I'm not attentive enough to her."

At least, the Mill Valley City Council uses the chuckle to ease the tension or the tedium, whichever force is about to overcome the council.

End man in this sometimes minstrel show is Councilman Michael Wornum, a master of the tongue-in-cheek, who ad libs when provoked or even when he is not provoked.

WHEN WORNUM was the lone council member voting to uphold a planning commission recommendation, he quipped "Every now and then the planning commission is right and when they are, they should be backed up."

On another occasion when the council was discussing placement of a "winding road" sign on a hazardous street, Wornum's solution was "Put a sign up at the entrance to Mill Valley saying 'Winding Road' and that would be it."

Mayor Joseph E. Sheeks got a laugh when he decided that police should arrest speed violators along a certain road "except, of course, the mayor."

COUNCILMEN ALSO indicated in no uncertain terms at their last session they are staunchly defending the "character" of Mill Valley, particularly single family residences.

"The character Mill Valley has is the result of the chaos of the past," said John Erickson, planning consultant.

After a second thought, Erickson said, "Don't get me wrong, I like Mill Valley. I'm in favor of planned chaos."

Erickson was outlining to the council the characteristics of a Planned Community District, a type of zoning that could be applied to development of Enchanted Knolls.

After he explained that it would permit duplexes or "mom and pop" grocery stores, the council looked askance at the proposal.

"The people want single family residences in Mill Valley," said Mayor Sheets.

Wornum broached the idea of permitting town houses which he felt could be "quite elegant," but someone put the damper on this saying that town houses are simply row houses by a fancier name.

WHEN PLANNING THEORY and political reality collide, the council veers toward politics, the mayor said. "After all, we're representing the people of Mill Valley."

Architect Charles Warren Callister, representing the developers, said "I'd hate to see this shot down because of political expediency and I'm not even sure of your political footing."

Callister, former chairman of the city's architectural advisory committee, said a few days after the meeting he hoped the council would be more open-minded.

"I'm sorry to see a simple prejudice stand in the way of good planning and progress," he said.

Callister particularly is against what he terms "over-control" that will discourage development.

Gov. Wallace Follows A Pattern Of First Bluff, Then Retreat

In making a political career of defiance, he has become the master of the big noise and the empty gesture. When the going gets tough, he melts.

His latest performance, defying desegregation of schools in the Alabama cities as ordered by federal courts, was just one more gesture.

He knows he can't get away with it. He may think it helps him politically. When the federal government puts the squeeze on him, he can say he tried.

IN HIS election campaign he called federal courts "lousy," vowed to disobey any school integregation order, and at inauguration promised "segregation forever."

The only thing wrong with the promise was that, to make good on it, he'd have to be able to defy the federal government and courts successfully.

But if he could do that, any governor could on any issue, and in the end so could any citizen.

The result would be not only no government, federal or state, but not even segregation, just chaos.

LAST MONTH he got in another empty gesture, this time on Bible reading in public schools.

While the Supreme Court on June 17 banned Bible reading in public schools as a religious exercise, it did not — and said it did not — ban Bible reading as part of a study course.

On Aug. 5 the Alabama Board of Education ordered the Bible read daily in all public schools as part of a study course.

WALLACE, who introduced the resolution to do this wasn't defying the court. It only sounded that way. He was complying with the court.

Nevertheless, he said: "I would like for the people of Alabama to be in defiance of such a ruling. I want the Supreme Court to know we are not going to conform to any such decision."

Wallace has now again followed his usual pattern of retreat, blaming desegregation on Kennedy, claiming he fought to the last ditch.

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Extension of the Marin ferry pier as the first Richmond bridge construction on the Marin side of the bay was expected to start soon and take six months to complete.

San Quentin Wye overpass opened for traffic, constructed at cost of $1,124,000 and eliminating left turns. Work had been under way for two years.

20 YEARS AGO

"A black picture for Marin restauranteurs" was painted by Dr. A. A. Campbell of the Marin Rationing Board concerning prospects for more eats in the eateries.

The Marin Housing Authority awarded a $200,000 contract to Leibert and Caletti for installation of a complete subterranean drainage system in Marin City to supplement the surface system.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Congress Is Now Reconciled To A Washington Christmas

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Following a characteristically protracted Labor Day recess, the wheels of Congress are rolling again—in their usual languid manner. The lawmakers now are quite reconciled to being in session the remainder of the year.

They are even jesting about it. Following is an example of this humor:

Rep. H. R. Gross (R-Ia.), veteran militant economizer and budget balancer: "I wonder if any attention has been given to Christmas decorations for the House, in view of the snail's pace with which this session is proceeding."

Rep. Carl Albert (Okla.), Democratic floor leader: "If we are here at Christmastime, I would be willing to join in designating the gentleman to be in charge of decorations. He gives so much attention to everything else that I know he could do this job well, too."

Gross: "I wonder if the gentleman would join me in a modest contribution toward those decorations?"

Rep. Clarence Brown (R-O.), long-time member of the powerful Rules Committee: "I want to express the hope that if we do have a Christmas party, the leadership will not arrange matters so that my good friend and colleague from Iowa is Santa Claus. Knowing how closely he holds onto taxpayers' dollars, I am afraid we would have a very skimpy Christmas. For that reason, I hope the leadership will select a more open-handed person to be Santa Claus."

THE CRYSTAL BALL—You can definitely count on the following:

President Kennedy will address the UN General Assembly later this month, probably between the 18th and 20th.

Gen. Alfred Gruenther, president of the American Red Cross, will retire next March when he becomes 65. He was appointed head of ARC by President Eisenhower, under whom he served as Chief of Staff when the latter was NATO commander.

The domestic peace corps bill, passed by the Senate by a three-vote margin, will not be acted on by the House this year. It's being pigeonholed until next year in the hope the delay will improve its chances.

THERE IS a very special reason behind the President's insistent demand for speedy ratification of the nuclear test ban treaty and restoration of the House's drastic slash of his $4.5 billion foreign aid budget.

Once these highly controversial issues are out of the way, backstage plans are afoot to eventually add Hungary and Rumania to the list of "trade and aid" nations.

Already closely-guarded overtures are underway looking toward the resumption of normal diplomatic relations with Hungary, and the establishment of some measure of trade ties with Rumania.

Minister William Crawford's quiet return from Bucharest late last month for 10 days of "policy review and consultations"; the recent visit to Rumania of Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman, the first Cabinet member ever to go to that country, and the trip there of two of the President's sisters, Mrs. Peter Lawford and Mrs. Stephen Smith.

FROM ALL inside signs, definitely on the administration's mind regarding both these Iron Curtain satellites is the possible sale of large quantities of surplus farm commodities under Public Law 480—under which the buyers pay with their own currency, that remains in their countries, in many instances to finance projects there.

In effect, PL 480 transactions are give-aways. That's their overwhelming record on the books of the government.

Yugoslavia and Poland, presently the only Communist countries on the "trade and aid" list, have benefited immensely from this law. Since 1954, Yugoslavia has obtained more than $624 million in U.S. surplus agricultural products, and Poland $425 million.

THE LIGHTER SIDE

Happiness Books Will Bust Out All Over

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — If I read the signs and portents correctly, we are on the brink of being inundated by happiness books.

I base this forecast partly on the success of a book called "Happiness Is A Warm Puppy."

Illustrated by characters from the comic strip "Peanuts," it equates happiness with such childhood pleasures as going barefoot, making an "A" in spelling, etc.

But mostly I base the prediction on the success of a book called "Happiness Is A Rat Fink."

A PARODY of the original, it equates happiness with such adult pleasures as seeing your mother-in-law arrested on a narcotics charge and having a pretty neighbor who undresses with the shades up.

There is an old saying in the publishing business that one good lampoon deserves another, so it seems logical to assume that a number of other books of this sort will be forthcoming.

There will, for instance, undoubtedly be a happiness book for teen-agers. "Happiness Is A Stolen Hubcap." "Happiness Is A Riot At Ocean City, Md."

And of course, a happiness book for colleges. "Happiness Is 49 Fraternity Brothers In A Telephone Booth." "Happiness Is Cribbing On A Religious Education Test."

BEFORE the market cools off, I hope to be able to interest a publisher in a happiness book for Washington. I plan to call it "Happiness Is 51 Per Cent Of The Votes."

The book I have in mind would be divided into several sections to cover various areas of the capital, something like this:

The Pentagon—"Happiness Is Phasing In A New Program Before The Old One Is Finalized." "Happiness Is A Parking Place Within Five Miles Of The River Entrance." "Happiness Is A Secretary Who Is Younger Than Your Wife."

The White House—"Happiness Is Someone Else's Turn To Walk The Dogs." "Happiness Is Cancelling A Newspaper Subscription." "Happiness Is A Wife Who Is Younger Than Your Secretary."

The Democratic National Committee—"Happiness Is A Southern Member Who Isn't Unhappy."

The Treasury—"Happiness Is A Temporary Increase In The Debt Limit."

How Does Mill Valley Tick? Outsiders Tell

Five young "outsiders" gently but in plain language told an audience of 12 in Mill Valley city hall last night how they think Mill Valley "ticks."

The five said they were not previously acquainted with the city. They emphasized they were "novices" and asked for corrections if they were wrong. They received no corrections from the audience.

Monday they interviewed people door to door. Tuesday and Wednesday they talked with city officials, people in social, educational and financial walks of life. Yesterday they "put everything together" and today they are to report to the Coro Foundation in San Francisco, with which they are interns in a nine-month program.

"The one impression which overrides the whole community and seems to encompass every issue is that the people are concerned with the maintenance of the unique character of Mill Valley," said Arlene J. Willits, 22, chairman of the panel, in conclusion.

There are not too many people left in the Bay Area who live in localities with this rural atmosphere, she noted. The big dilemma, she said, "in light of growth and expansion . . . is how can Mill Valley maintain this low density residential, quaint character that is unique to it?"

On the panel, besides Mrs. Willits, were Robert F. Beyer, 24; Douglas E. Lord, 27; Michael F. Silberstein, 21, and Ann E. Zelhart, 23.

Here are conclusions and brief comments on seven main questions asked Mill Valley citizens:

Reason for coming to Mill Valley — people came to earn a living, because of the atmosphere, trees, because children could be reared in a "more natural state." They wanted to get away from suburbia and tracts and go back to nature.

Schools—older residents are concerned about taxes being too high to support schools. Younger parents with children in grammar schools are concerned with quality of construction and facilities and not in bond elections. "There is an intense pride particularly with elementary schools." Schools have enjoyed a good reputation.

Project 17—"There is not a heck of a lot to do in Mill Valley. The Tam High pool is crowded. Project 17 was going on since I was four and will be going on until I get out of high school . . . there is a great consideration for the plight of the teen-ager but no real action." It is a healthy community, progressing, people are aware.

Library—"It needs to be better. It needs expansion. It needs accessibility for older residents."

Planning—"We would like to see this community prevented from becoming a San Jose type area, that is, unplanned. . . . Most people say we don't want multiple dwellings. Keep it single dwellings. . . . There is a 'blur' area. Where does the balance of power lie between the council and city manager? Where does policy making begin and managing end? These problems become a 'blur' and problems arise."

Local participation in community affairs and government —"There's a great intellectual awareness and civic awareness in this community in terms of civic action. . . . Everybody seems to be well aware of what is going on. They are interested in schools, P-TA, clubs."

In question and answer period, John Robinson of Mill Valley, vice president of Coro, said the criteria of the students is that some day they will be able to play a role in civic experience. He said another group of interns are this week doing a like study in Millbrae.

"I think you sent us the cream of the crop," said Mrs. James Stephenson, sitting in the front of the hall.

Park Is Backed As Library Site

The northwest portion of the city-owned Old Mill Park was recommended to the Mill Valley Council last night by library trustees as the site for a new public library.

This recommendation, said Mrs. Dorothy Thomas, librarian, is subject to the resolution of possible legal problems with which the council is familiar.

The vote on the resolution was 3-0 with Trustees Benjamin Draper and Mrs. John P. Farnham absent. However, Mrs. Farnham said today that both she and Draper had indicated to the board that they favor the site.

Sanitary Area To Be Discussed

The possibility of forming a sanitary district in San Geronimo Valley will be discussed at a meeting of the Community Services Committee at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Lagunitas School.

The meeting, originally scheduled for last night, was postponed because several of the guests could not attend, reported Burt K. W. Kenny of Forest Knolls, committee chairman.

County Supervisor George Gnoss, William Desmond, county sanitary engineer, and Richard D. Godino, deputy county counsel, have been invited to attend.

Jade And Ivory Carvings Stolen

Valuable jade and ivory carvings, about $800 worth, vanished from a Novato home, Deputy Sheriff Thomas A. Lightfoot reported yesterday.

Boris Dragon, an insurance broker who lives at the end of School Lane, told the officer that the theft occurred sometime this month. He does not know the exact date. There was no sign of a forced entry into his home.

Missing from his bedroom are an assortment of carvings, a machete with a three-foot blade, and an antique hand iron.

'Too Many On Dole'

LINCOLN, England (UPI) — Magistrate Epton Allbones, refusing to take away a man's driving license because he needs it to earn a living, said yesterday "there are too many on the dole now."

Employees Complain Of Time Off

Corte Madera Public Works Supt. Walter E. Nagel is violating the town personnel ordinance by giving employees only four hours time off for weekend standby service, a meeting of town employees decided last night.

The ordinance provides for equal time off and the hours spent near the phone should all be paid for in equal time off, the Town of Corte Madera Employees Assn. held.

The group voted to complain by letter to Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow and the town council. Sixteen of the 25 members were present.

The group voted to ask the town council to grant annual step increases each Jan. 1 instead of July 1.

The group, organized last January by Town Gardener George Paraspolo, who has served to now as president, nominated for officers: Sgt. David L. McIntosh, police, and Willard Clark, public works, for president; Patrolman Charles E. Rester, police, and Nell Rugg, town clerk, vice president; Stan White, public works, and Patrolman Howard Bailey, police, secretary; and Inspector Harold N. Hockett, police, and Edward Viles, public works, executive board.

Officers will be elected at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 10 in town hall.

Mosquito District To Drain Swamp

The Marin County Mosquito Abatement District will help Tiburon Sanitary District drain a tule swamp near the railroad yards in Tiburon, the mosquito district board of trustees decided last night.

The improved drainage would eliminate a mosquito breeding source and could reduce possible flooding during the winter months, Manager G. Paul Jones reported.

COLLEGE TRUSTEES IN CLOSED MEET

Board In Land Purchase Huddle For Hour; County Counsel Hold Their Action Legal

The Marin Junior College District board met behind closed doors for an hour last night to discuss a land purchase, on advice of County Counsel E. Warren McGuire that the action was legal.

The hour-long huddle preceded the board's regular meeting. McGuire was not present, but had written the board a letter concerning negotiations for property on Laurel Avenue, Kentfield, belonging to Alice T. Bacigalupi and Margaret Yost. The property is sought for an extension of the college campus.

McGuire said today he had advised the college board and president that it would be legal to discuss his letter in closed session on the theory that it came under the status of confidential attorney-client relationship.

He said he based this on an attorney general's opinion, held that a city council and city attorney could discuss litigation in secret where disclosure "might benefit the people's adversary," despite the fact that California's anti-secret meeting law makes no provision for such conferences. (There is, incidentally, a directly contrary opinion from the state legislative counsel.)

McGuire said today, after checking the attorney general's opinion, that "this appears to be a gray area. The opinion refers only to discussion with the attorney, but my letter might be construed as my part of the discussion."

The land in question is adjacent to a row of 11 houses which the college board last night directed be demolished to make way for college expansion. McGuire said he is dealing with an attorney representing the owner, but no legal action has yet been instituted.

"Disclosure of appraisals and offers at this time might prejudice the college district's case if we have to go to court," he said.

Twins, 16, Sailor Injured As Car Rolls Off Grade

Novato 16-year-old girl twins and a San Francisco Navy sailor were injured when his northbound car rolled off Waldo Grade at a curve about 6:30 p.m. yesterday about .4 of a mile north of Monte Mar Drive, Sausalito.

Michael G. Noronha, 17, electrician third class attached to the Maunkea, was treated for a cut left leg at Marin General Hospital and transferred to Oak Knoll Naval Hospital. His passengers, Patricia and Linda Tillman of 409 Alameda De Loma were treated at the same hospital, Patricia for head cuts and Linda for right arm and right leg cuts, and transferred to Kaiser Foundation Hospital, San Francisco.

College Coach Looses Part Of Index Finger

Richard G. Read, 34, of 1340 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, was treated at Marin General Hospital yesterday after the tip of his right index finger was cut off.

Read, football coach for College of Marin, said he was inspecting a repair job on his car at a Corte Madera garage when the mechanic unexpectedly turned the motor on and his finger caught in the generator belt.

Robert B. Grady

Redwood Bank Names Grady A Director

Robert B. Grady, general manager of Lucas Valley Dairy, has been appointed a directer of Redwood National Bank, San Rafael to fill the recent vacancy caused by the death of Walter R. Castro.

Grady has been with the dairy since 1940, a business founded by his father originally for the sale of wood, coal and grain in 1890 and later branching into fresh milk distribution.

He is a former president of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce and director of the Dairy Institute of California.

He is currently director of the Associated Independent Dairies of America, and for 15 years served as a director of the First National Bank of San Rafael and the Bank of San Rafael. He makes his home at 110 Palm Avenue, San Rafael.

Swiss Club Tells Charges Ex-Caretaker With Theft

The Swiss Club Tell of Mill Valley, which gave its caretaker the bounce Aug. 26 when he tried to spruce up club buildings without the club directors approval, now miss their caretaker.

They miss him so much they've got a warrant of arrest out for him.

Wanted on a charge of embezzlement is William Castleberg, caretaker at the club since July 1. Club President Leo F. Schwab contends that Castleberg broke into the club on Sept. 3 after directors had tossed Castleberg's and his wife's belongings onto the porch.

Richard Daniel Peters, first vice president of the club, told the district attorney that caretaker Castleberg took off with all the money in the till—about $230.

At the request of the district attorney, Judge Joseph G. Wilson yesterday issued a warrant of arrest for Castlebrg, with bail set at $2,625.

Schwab, president of Swiss Club Tell, said that 14 plywood panels, a carpet and a juke box are also missing from the club. So are "a flock of keys" to the building.

"If we find him, we plan to prosecute," said the president.

Dixie Knows Future Needs

San Rafael school officials know their future school construction needs, and that's why the Dixie School District board is backing their request for a 50-cent increase in the $1.25 operating tax rate for the high school district, with part of the money to be spent for buildings.

A motion by Dixie trustee Melvin R. Stidham, approved unanimously by the Dixie board Wednesday night, said the high school district tax "must be increased to maintain the present educational program . . . and to provide for known future construction needs."

Bank Book Stolen

Theft of a bank book, a $1,000 cashiers check and $65 from a shelf in a bedroom was reported to San Rafael police yesterday by Mrs. Violette May Jones of 27 Twin Oaks Avenue, San Rafael. Mrs. Jones said the items were stolen between Aug. 15 and 30.

Kickoffs Tonight, Tomorrow For Marin High Schools

DRAKE MEETS ARMIJO IN KENTFIELD OPENER

Drake High School's Pirates hope to surprise the visiting Armijo High 11 by avenging last year's 19-0 defeat tonight when the two teams collide in the opening game of the season at 8 o'clock in College of Marin Stadium, Kentfield.

It will have to be quite a surprise to match that endured by the Drake coaching staff Wednesday. It was discovered that Armijo uses a single wing, brought in by new coach Jack Beggs. Last year the team played from a flanker-T and Drake head coach Bob Franceschini this year has been drilling his athletes on the old "Armijo plays."

Franceschini and assistant coach Red Brown had just one day, yesterday, to prepare the defensive squad for the new type of offense. "All is not lost, however," said Franceschini. "Now we will be prepared to cope with Tam's offense." (The Tamalpais Indians this year will be using a multiple offense which will include the single wing.)

Most of Drake's emphasis, however, has been on offensive practice. "If the other team scores three, we'll score four," said Franceschini, repeating the words of his former coach, Larry Siemering of College of Pacific (now the University of Pacific). Siemering taught this type of football during the days Eddie LeBaron was running wild for COP.

Franceschini said the Drake offense has been coming along good, most of the gridders learning the basic parts of the "new brand" of football at Drake. That is the wide open formations, split ends and wide flanker backs.

Big gun in the starting lineup for Drake tonight will be quarterback Mike Kemp. Also one of the stars of last year's team, Mike Crabtree, will open the game at the flankerback spot. But this versatile boy may be moved to other positions during the game.

Most of Drake's speed will come from starting halfback Dean Lazzarini, the sophomore who threatens to be a three-year letterman in both football and track. He was the top star on last year's Class B track team at Drake.

The varsity game will be preceded by a Drake-Armijo J.V. contest at 5:45 p.m., also in the COM stadium.

Stan Carter, le; Lee Jamison, lt; Richard Street, lg; Loren Swaney, c; Jim Walsh, rg; John O'Mara, rt; Larry Stein, re; Mike Kemp, qb; Dean Lazzarini, hb; Dave Cericola, fb; Mike Crabtree, flanker.

San Rafael High School will unveil its 1963 football edition tonight when Coach Bob Muster's Bulldogs entertain Arcata High of the Humboldt-Del Norte League.

Coming off a disastrous 1-8 won-lost record last year, San Rafael is looking for brighter things and will rely heavily on the passing talents of senior quarterback Wade Roberts to lead the way along the comeback trail.

"We've concentrated on passing in practice," said Muster, "so you can expect Roberts to do a lot of pitching. Mostly short ones, but an occasional long one."

IT'S SAN RAFAEL VS. ARCATA '11' TONIGHT

San Rafael's rushing game will feature the only juniors on the otherwise all-senior lineup—right half Tim Harr and fullback John O'Donnell. Of Harr, Muster praises, "He's an exciting runner with breakaway potential. He picks his holes well." The coach described O'Donnell as his power runner.

According to Muster, Arcata is supposed to outweigh his Bulldogs by a considerable margin. "We expect a tough game," the coach said. "Arcata has a strong running team and has a fine record over the past four years."

Muster says his defense has looked strong in practice. "We're definitely improved over last year."

Novato Gets A Stiff Test With Riordan '11' Tomorrow

With Novato High School's line showing fast improvement, the Hornets will open the 1963 football season tomorrow afternoon against the rugged gridders from Riordan High School of the Catholic League.

It will be a stiff test for the Hornets as Riordan usually has one of the top teams in the Bay Area. Kickoff is scheduled for 2 p.m. on the Hornets' home field.

Led by fullback John Miller, the Novato aggregation is loaded with experienced backs, but an inexperienced line was a pre-season question mark in the mind of coach Marlin Olsen. However, Olsen has been pleased with the improvement shown by the candidates for the front wall.

Along with Miller, Roy Otis will start at quarterback, Rick Thomas will open at halfback, and George Scherba will get the starting nod at the wingback spot. All received letters last year.

The Hornets are more than two deep in experienced back positions so there will be a lot of substituting going on during the game. "If any of our backs gets tired it's a mistake," said Olsen.

Novato will have good size in the starting tackles, with Al Blos tipping the scales at a hefty 225 pounds and Wayne Russell weighing 190 pounds. The weights drop off at the center and guard positions, center Bob Phillips at 170 and guards Ron Tieche and Bob Bonner each at 165.

SPEEDY BACKS

The ends—Rusty Druba and Dave Ralph—and the backs provide the speed, as the interior line reportedly has "fair speed."

Two linemen will miss the home opener tomorrow because of injuries, both minor. Guard Bob Renati is nursing a charley horse and tackle Roy Richards has a sprained ankle. Those are the only injuries on the Hornet squad.

Otis' throwing, good receiving by the backs and ends, and the fast improvement by the linemen have kept Olsen pleased during this last week of practice.

Riordan has eight starters back from last season. Besides the experience, the line averages about 190 pounds across. It will be a rough start for the Hornets, but it will get the chargers prepared for things to come.

Need Some Tickets To 49er Game? Tavern Owners Stuck With Plenty

The nosedive of the 49ers has had a sickening effect on many restaurant and tavern owners.

They're the ones who buy up flocks of season tickets for their regular Sunday afternoon bus trips to Kezar, and they're the ones who get financially stuck when interest in the home team drops.

For several years these bus-junket sponsors had no trouble getting rid of the tickets, but last season the drought began to show.

And now, after the Thirty-Niners have lost five straight, it looks like a long, cold winter for many tavern owners.

One of them, Jimmy McKee of McKee's Hofbrau in San Rafael, phoned yesterday with an S.O.S. "Please tell your hundreds of thousands of readers," pleaded McKee, "that I've got all kinds of tickets for Sunday's game. Lots of room on the bus. It'll be loads of fun, and don't let that practice record fool you. The 49ers have something up their sleeves. They'll surprise everyone. And be sure to mention we have lots of tickets. Come one, come all."

If the Twenty-Niners lose many more games, I imagine there'll be many similar S.O.S.'s.

Well, there's always the Raiders.

SUDDEN THOUGHT: The Giants' magic number has now been reduced to 1962.

A NOTE from Ernie Beyer of Player Periscope in Novato tells us that San Anselmo's Johnny Boccabella, now with the Cubs, could have won two batting championships in his rookie year at Pocatello, Ida., only to be stymied by the lack of time.

Boc batted .365 as compared to the .349 of the Pioneer League's official champion, Gene Kerns. However, a total of 403 plate appearances was necessary for the official title and John ended with 375. Thus, he probably would have won the title had he started a week earlier.

Also, Boccabella's total of 30 homers was second in the league to Alex Johnson's 35. Johnson played in 120 games, Boccabella in only 84.

THE READ family of Santa Rosa seems to have cornered the market on football coaching jobs in the North Bay area.

YO APOSTOLI sent me an invitation to the Apostolis' Embers Guys and Dolls invitational golf tournament Oct. 2 at Peacock Gap with this personal note: "Will team you with J. F. Kennedy. Sent him an invite, of course. I don't know yet if he has accepted."

Sorry, Yo, I'm not much of a golfer. And besides, those Secret Service men make me nervous.

Belvedere Tennis Club Founder To Be Honored

The Belvedere Tennis Club's all-day tennis barbecue this Sunday is being called "The Cuthbertsons' Day" in honor of W. R. D. Cuthbertson, club founder.

According to Mrs. William Ferguson, club publicity chairman, "All tennis enthusiasts know Mr. Cuthbertson has stimulated enthusiasm for tennis playing on the Tiburon Peninsula and has crystallized this interest by establishing clubs and courts. In addition to the Belvedere Club he was also active in encouraging the tennis program at the Tiburon Peninsula Club where he served as tennis chairman."

Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbertson will be honored by both tennis and non-tennis playing club members. Chairman John Costello and the committee are planning an all day Round Robin Tournament followed by cocktails and a barbecue at 6 p.m. at the clubhouse.

Three Marin Teams Take To The Road

Three of Marin's prep football teams take to the road to open the 1963 season this weekend with two games tonight and one tomorrow afternoon.

Leading the out of town action tonight will be Redwood High School's Giants when they take on powerful Bellarmine in the new Buck Shaw Stadium in Santa Clara. Game time is 8 o'clock. In the other road game tonight, Tamalpais treks to Concord to battle Pacifica, also at 8 p.m., on Mount Diablo Field.

Terra Linda High School will open its season tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 in Walnut Creek against the gridders from Del Valle High School.

Redwood's head grid coach, Bob Troppmann, is not too optimistic about his first test of the season. Bellarmine, expected to have one of the best teams in Northern California, is led by a big, solid front wall. "We hope to benefit by playing one of the top teams in Northern Cal," said Troppmann.

Troppmann has decided on Tom Gootherts to start at quarterback. He'll be joined in the backfield by veteran backs Dave Auerbach and Dave Cox and transfer student Paul Ackerman, a good sized fullback. Steve Minutoli, one of the defensive stars for the Giants, will captain the team in the opener.

ROOTERS BUSES

Three rooters buses have been chartered, plus one bus for parents of the gridders, sponsored by the Redwood Benchwarmers Club.

Head Tam coach Pete Belden reported that his multiple offense is ready for tonight's opener, but the finer points of the game aren't quite up to par. He's had to teach a lot of new football in a short time and will probably need more time on the drawing board.

But Belden and his Indian gridders are looking forward to the Pacifica game, especially after the 7-7 tie last year with this same opponent.

Belden praised the quarterbacking of Robin Prosch and the play of halfback Ellis Williams, the speedster, and end Cedric Collett, who switched from a quarterback.

A pair of minor injuries may change his guard selections for the opener. Ken Clarke has a bruised arm and Marty Anthony has a pulled muscle in his back. Both are doubtful starters.

Pacifica has been picked as a rough contender in the Diablo League this year. The game will be preceded by a junior varsity clash between the two schools at 5:45 p.m.

BIG EXPERIMENT

It will be a big experiment for the Terra Linda Trojans when they tangle with Del Valle. "We'll use the game to find out what we have and Old Pros Taking Charge For L. A.

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Youth can be wonderful — and the Los Angeles Dodgers have plenty—but the "old men" of the team seem to have taken charge of its 1963 destiny.

These are the men who most resent the choke-up charges they've heard since the San Francisco Giants "stole" the 1962 National League pennant. Good solid pros . . . like Wally Moon . . . Maury Wills . . . and John Roseboro.

It's clearly the hour of the Dodgers' greatest need with the St. Louis swifties coming on like gangbusters and it's these men who have answered Manager Walt Alston's call for help.

Stiffening in the face of the Cardinal charge, the Dodgers have won their last three games to retain their three-game bulge over the swifties, who've taken 15 of their last 16 including six in a row. First it was Moon driving in two runs in a 4-2 victory, then it was Wills with four hits in a 9-4 triumph, and last night it was Roseboro with a grand slam homer and five runs batted in for a "personal" 5-3 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

EXTREME PRESSURE

The Dodgers started their game in Pittsburgh last night under the most extreme sort of pressure — the kind that begs for an el foldo. The Cardinals' 8-3 afternoon victory over the Chicago Cubs already was on the scoreboard and 16-game winner Bob Friend was on the mound for the Pirates.

Roseboro provided the Dodger answer when he went to bat with the bases filled and two out in the first inning — and connected for the second grand slam of his career to send the Dodgers off to a 4-0 lead. Roseboro singled home Moon in the third inning to make it 5-0 and Johnny Podres protected the margin until the eighth when he needed the relief help of Ron Perranoski. The win was Podres' 13th against 10 losses.

The Cardinals continued their terrific late drive behind the seven-hit, seven-strikeout pitching of Ernie Broglio, who scored his 16th victory. Bill White hit a two-run homer and drove in three runs and Dick Groat and Stan Musial had two hits each in the 11-hit attack. Cub rookie first baseman John Boccabella connected for his first major league home run in the ninth inning.

The San Francisco Giants stopped their two-game skid with a 6-0 win over the New York Mets and the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Houston Colts, 4-1, in the only other National League games. In the American League, New York defeated Kansas City, 5-2, Minnesota topped Cleveland, 3-2, and Los Angeles beat Boston, 2-0.

Important News About Imported Scotch

How a sea voyage in its original casks from our Distillery in Scotland creates a Whisky with the unique combination of elegant taste and thrifty price

The art of "gentle-ing" came into being centuries ago when wealthy wine merchants used to send their wines on long ocean voyages in their original casks in order to bring them to their point of perfection. And now the same holds true for House of Stuart Scotch Whisky.

House of Stuart is a blend of 30 of the finest Scotch distillations. It is carefully blended and aged in our distillery in Bowling-By-Glasgow, Scotland. Then—like the wine merchants of old—we send our fine Scotch out to sea in its original casks to be "gentled," and imported to America. As a result of this sea voyage, not only is the taste of House of Stuart improved, but the cost is also considerably less.

You see, since it is shipped in its original casks, House of Stuart does not have to pay the taxes and duties paid by other Scotches that are bottled overseas. This means you pay almost $2.00 less per fifth than many other popular brands. Visit your liquor mart or store and ask for House of Stuart. It's elegant in taste, and thrifty in price because it's shipped in its original casks.

AN OLD TIME GET-TOGETHER

Giants Face Lowly Bucs Tonight

PITTSBURGH (AP) — After managing to salvage a game from the lowly New York Mets yesterday, the National League's defending champion San Francisco Giants test their rediscovered vigor against the slightly better Pittsburgh Pirates tonight.

Juan Marichal won the Polo Grounds contest for the Giants yesterday by fanning 13 Mets, giving up only four hits and then smashing the first homer of his major league career for a 6-0 victory. But there was very little revenge in the win for the Giants, who lost Tuesday and Wednesday, both times by a 4-2 score, to the Mets.

Manager Alvin Dark said he will start Bob Bolin (8-5) against the eighth-place Pittsburgh crew. Joe Gibbon (5-10) was to take the mound for the Pirates.

Playing a little more like the defending champions, the Giants had little trouble yesterday with a chore they had found impossible on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Marichal pranced around the bases, smiling in the fifth when he cleared the fence with his homer. Bailey followed suit in the sixth with his 18th round-tripper.

The Mets managed to threaten the lead only once—in the fifth — when Choo Choo Coleman beat out a bunt for a single and then stole second. He was left there.

Why Put Garibaldi In Bullpen? Expensive Guys Should Start

CONNOLLY

What I'd like to know is why the Giants will pay $150,000 bonus for a promising young pitcher, and after giving him a year's minor league experience, schedule him for relief duty in 1964.

It may not turn out that way but Manager Al Dark already has indicated Bob Garibaldi may be one of his relief flingers in 1964, just as though he were extending a big favor to the young former Santa Clara pitcher.

What the heck is baseball coming to if they take young guys in swaddling clothes and make them second raters to start off their career?

Relief pitching is an old graveyard in organized baseball. It means the guy involved is dead and in a short time the monument will be engraved. Meanwhile he gets paid for what he knows, not for what he does.

Why should Bob Garibaldi be a bullpen pitcher?

The guy cost the Giants more money, 10 times more, than either Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda, Willie McCovey or any other player on the Giant payroll, excepting possibly Bob Bolin.

IT WOULD be much better if the Giants would come out in the open and say they've lost confidence in Garibaldi and can't afford to make him a starting pitcher.

When the Giants allegedly paid $80,000 for Mike McCormick it was to see him pitch, not to have him backstop an aging oldtimer.

McCormick, had he gotten nothing for signing, rather than the $80,000, would today probably be a member of the Giants in good standing, instead of in another league. But he was a bonus baby. They had to flaunt him before the public when they did, and he didn't make good, he was a boo-boo guy; a failure.

I believe that any bonus baby pitcher should demand a clause in his contract that guarantees him the club pitches him in so many innings his first year out.

BUT RIGHT now any big league club that feels like it can take your son or mine and make a jackass pitcher out of him if they want to.

Right along I've tried to point out that Manager Al Dark wants no truck with youngsters. If you don't believe it, examine the 1963 records. He had two pitchers with better than average experience—Jim Duffalo and Bob Bolin. His job was to develop them. He didn't.

Duffalo, after supportedly being punished by Dark, was late in the season a starting pitcher. He made good and was going along fine when injured and sidelined.

Bolin, an $80,000 bonus pitcher, has raised a fine crop of corns on the seat of his pants in the bullpen. Whenever the mood struck him Manager Dark started Bolin. If Bob did good and wasn't wild he got another chance. But sometimes it was a long wait between starts.

I DON'T mean to blame Dark for the long waits excepting he wanted the pennant more than he wanted Bolin to develop as a pitcher.

It'll be the day when you find a manager developing young stars and at the same time winning a pennant. He has to do one thing or the other. This year Dark has accomplished neither.

And right now, only a few days after Garibaldi reported, his manager announces he may decide to make him a bullpen pitcher next year.

WINNER—Jay Leatherwood was the winning pitcher as Sohner Tree Service nipped the Presidio team 8-7 in a playoff game for the A Division championship of the San Rafael Adult Softball League last night. Solo home runs were hit by Ron Jerome and Jessie Munyan of the Sohner softball team.

Tars Scrimmage With Chabot '11'

A total of 53 College of Marin hopefuls will be literally battling for positions when the Tars meet Chabot College in a pre-season scrimmage at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at College of Marin stadium.

The Mariners open the regular season against Menlo College next Friday night in Kentfield.

The Chabot-Marin tuneup will be the first real test for the Tars since the giant squad began workouts two weeks ago. It should give head coach Dick Read and assistant coaches Ed Grimm and Jim McGowan the kind of look they need to make up starting lineups. The team, however, has been going through heavy contact drills all this week.

Read said he will be interested mostly in "how we execute our plays" during the Chabot scrimmage.

"So far we shape up strong in the line but really lack experience in the backfield," said Read. In the Tar camp are 17 veterans and 36 freshmen. Line prospects are led by big Lyle Baucom (6-5, 248), at tackle, and Don Burrows at guard, both men named all-conference last year. "All told we've got 16 linemen who weigh 200 pounds or better," said line coach Grimm.

Departing Golf Captain Honored At Meadow Club

Meadow Club's women golfers honored Mrs. Harry Transue, club captain, at a farewell luncheon yesterday, following qualifying rounds of the championship tournament.

Mrs. Transue, who will leave for Australia next week, was presented with a gold bracelet and charm. Mrs. T. N. Brown will captain the club for the remainder of the year.

Class B—Mrs. C. W. Morrill, 92-21—71; Mrs. J. S. Harrison, 95-20—75; Mrs. Ted Weitzel, 98-21—77; Mrs. John McGee, 98-21—77.

Belvedere Tennis Club Votes For Expansion

By an overwhelming vote, the Belvedere Tennis Club last night decided to proceed immediately with a $65,000 club expansion project.

According to Walter A. Machette, president, 80 per cent of those eligible voted and 93 per cent of these voted yes.

Plans include a 85 by 50 foot swimming pool, bathhouse and lockers, an addition to the present clubhouse, acquisition of adjacent property for additional tennis courts, night lighting of one court, a two-way backboard court and landscaping.

Architect Chester Bowles Jr. was asked to proceed with working drawings. Construction should start within six weeks and be completed by next spring, Machette said.

Midget Auto Race At Petaluma's Track On Sunday

A veteran of more than 20 years in the speedway sport, John Guisti, Sacramento leadfoot, today signed for the midget auto race championship race at the Petaluma Fairgrounds Sunday night.

Qualifying will open the eight-event card at 7 p.m. Guisti will join some of the West's foremost midget drivers in the action.

Current point leader for the Pacific Coast is Dee Hileman. All points scored at Petaluma will count toward the 1963 crown with sanction received from the Bay Cities Racing Assn.

Guisti will drive a Chevy II powered midget against a field of crack pilots, some of whom will be at the wheels of Offenhausers.

Wilt Chamberlain Signs Contract With Warriors

The San Francisco Warriors announced today that Wilt Chamberlain has signed his contract for the coming season.

Warrior General Manager Eddie Gottlieb would not release Chamberlain's salary amount, but said it was "about the same" as the $60,000 Wilt received last year.

Chamberlain was the league's top scorer last season with 3,586 points.

Georgia Tech, Florida Meet In TV Game

ATLANTA (AP)—Florida and Georgia Tech meet tomorrow in the opening game of the 1963 major college football season.

The nationally televised CBS-TV contest between the Southeastern Conference powers is the first major college game of the year, with only a handful of other games scheduled around the country. The college schedule won't get into full swing until next weekend.

The Yellow Jackets, rated a six-point favorite, have won 21 games to Florida's six in the history of the series. Five ended in ties. Tech finished fourth in the SEC last year with a 5-2 record and Florida came right behind with a 4-2 slate. Both teams are considered contenders for the conference title this season.

Check Of Records Shows Sept. 15 Usual Start Of Striped Bass Run

STEVENS

Remember the old saw, "One swallow doesn't make a spring"? Nor does one day's catch of bass make a run. Like, for example, the flurry on Saturday in the Buoy 5 sector of San Pablo Bay. Skipper O'Brian out of Dowrelio's Crockett Harbor came in with nine nice bass that day and the Rodeo Marina sent word that limits of bass were boated on Friday and Saturday. On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday hardly a fish was landed. Sad, but true.

Going over my records for the past 10 years, I note that while bass fishing on bait was fair to good some years as early as the first week in September, practically every year the GOOD fishing didn't get going until the 15th of September, or a week later. To check on this, I contacted four oldtimers and asked their opinions. All four agreed that Sept. 15 was about the time we could expect the annual runs of stripers in San Pablo Bay, but that certain weather and tidal conditions might delay things for one week—no longer. So, if history repeats itself, we can hope for bait fishing action in the San Pablo this coming weekend or not later than the 21st of September. (Will any bass reading the above please cooperate!)

BY THE way, any reader who has an off day on Sept. 21 and would relish a nice trip, how about tossing the kiddies and the fishing tackle in the car and heading for the opening of the Paradise Park recreation pier. Should be a very pleasant trip. Kel Nelson phoned me yesterday to announce the opening of the fishing pier at Paradise Park on the Marin shore. He expects to entertain a large crowd, maybe stage a fish derby for the youngsters, have refreshments and prizes and—who knows, maybe a brass band to liven things up. I certainly wouldn't miss the affair, how about you?

Look! I need some help. I've been sending out various recipes for the cooking of fish and eels and mollusks through my columns for years. Now I need a recipe. I have had a number of requests from my readers asking how to make a smokehouse to smoke fish, particularly salmon. I've gone through my files searching for the information that I once had. I can't find it. Will some reader who knows how to build a smoke house, what wood to use and how to prepare salmon for smoking — the works? Please get me off the hook. Send me the modus operandi. Verily, I thank ye kindly!

Just received word that the good ship, Wilma H. docked Tuesday with 14 salmon to 22 pounds taken off Duxbury. Lee Anderson's Bait and Tackle shop in Oakland also advised that the boat, Keesa, took four limits of stripers to 22 pounds in the Alcatraz sector.

The Sportfishing Center reported the Chinook having two salmon per rod on Tuesday from Duxbury, and Joe Navarro of Castro Valley raved over the exceptional dove shooting in the local hills.

Dave Kinley, skipper of the famous Evie K salmon trolling boat reported his craft will be back in service tomorrow.

Substitute Announced For Heavyweight Bout

ROOKIE HOME RUN RECORD

Minnesota Twins president Calvin Griffith (right) hands over the ball and congratulates Twins rookie outfielder Jimmie Hall who hit his 32nd home run yesterday to set an American League record for number of homers in first year. Hall's homer came in the eighth inning against Cleveland in the Twin Cities. His homer is one more than Ted Williams hit in his rookie season at Boston in 1939. Griffith was standing near right field and retrieved the ball for Hall. The home run helped the Twins edge Cleveland 3-2 in 10 innings.

Archer In U.S. Golf Semis

Archer, 23, who is studying to be a cowboy at Gilroy, Calif., has won the San Francisco City championship, the Northern California Open and is the Trans-Mississippi champion.

He downed a friend of his, NCAA runner-up John Lotz of San Jose State, 3 and 2, and then spilled NAIA small college champion Steve Spray of Eastern New Mexico U., 1 up, in yesterday's double round.

Beman scrambled to a 1 up, 19-hole decision over Barry Meerdink of Muscatine, Iowa, before routing Cleveland salesman Walter Stahl, 6 and 5, with one-under-par play in the afternoon.

Sikes, 23, Americas, Walker and World cupper, and NCAA champ from Arkansas, sank a 10-foot birdie putt on the last hole to eliminate Ed Tutwiler of Charleston, W. Va., and fired 14 straight pars in humbling John Owens of Lexington, Ky., 6 and 4 in the quarter-finals.

Coe, the U.S. champion in 1949 and 1958, had a couple of breezes—8 and 7 over Jimmy Thompson of the University of Texas, and 6 and 4 over Dick Guardiola of Cleveland.

Mrs. Fleck Wins Low Net Honors

Mrs. T. A. Fleck won low net honors yesterday at the Marin Golf and Country Club where Guest Day was held. She shot a 92, and with her 21 handicap, registered a net score of 71.

Results were:

what we need," said Pete Limm, head Trojan coach.

Stan Pareto, termed the best player on the team by Limm, will captain the defensive unit as the Trojans will be two platooned, giving as many kids as possible a chance to play.

Out of the lineup for the opener will be quarterback Bob Taylor with a broken thumb and end Bill Hall with a bruised kidney. Fullback Steve Frazzini has a charley horse, but should be well enough to start the game.

Former Golf Star Is Seriously Ill

Doctors said he would not be allowed any visitors. They said his condition is "not too good." However, the former golf star was reported conscious and in fairly good condition.

WEEKEND YACHTING

Sailors Scramble For 1963 Titles

By ALFRED MATSON

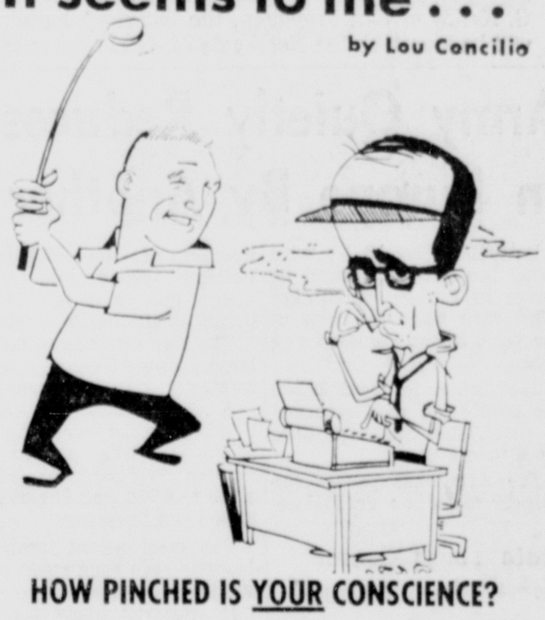
Hard to believe, but for the sailors racing under the Yacht Racing Assn. burgee there remain just two more chances in the frenetic scramble for season's championships. This weekend, the Golden Gate Yacht Club will do the honors in the next-to-last regatta and two weeks hence, the St. Francis club will officiate. After that, Recorder Don Seaton will tote the scores and the new champions will be duly acclaimed.

For some of the aspirants, such as Jim Michael's Nubian queen, Baruna, their point lead is unsurmountable and the final races mere formalities, yet with the majority it will be a battle to the bitter end. So, regardless of weather, the Golden Gaters should call the turn on a near record fleet.

It will be the usual two-day circus with the Cruising Club and handicap divisions furnishing the fireworks tomorrow and the one design classes getting in their licks on Sunday. Saturday's opening attraction will be the tall ships in Cruising Club "A" at 11:30 a.m. followed at five-minute intervals by the other divisions. The starting line will be between the host clubhouse and a marker buoy offshore. It will be the one design classes in Sunday's fracas with the large, and keenly competitive, IC'ers heading the parade at 11:10 a.m. and the other 24 classes, singularly and in groups, following at five-minute intervals.

It seems to me . . .

by Lou Concilio



HOW PINCHED IS YOUR CONSCIENCE?

Life for me is filled with many pleasures, some little, some of imposing and lasting magnitude. Not the least of these pleasures is the air of superiority I assume, along with condescending doses of compassion, when a visitor sighs with obvious envy over the wonders of Marin County. I puff with pride, and brag again of the keen insight that urged me to leave the hell of Detroit for these heavenly climes.

So much natural beauty abounds in an air caressed by warmth and gentle breezes that a Sunday drive in any direction within the county never tires or bores. And, every stop affords yet another opportunity to observe indulgently the poor tourists from San Francisco and beyond, who cannot resist this handy escape from fog and foul air.

Like all havens, this one, too, needs financial support to continue to flourish. Industrial areas like San Francisco, Alameda, and San Mateo counties are supported by these industries. Their substantially greater populations bring added revenues from sales taxes and motor vehicle fees, all relieving considerably the burden to be borne by individual property owners. All this help is theirs, but they know our gracious living only by visiting us or drooling over the multi-colored layouts in the slick magazines.

We fortunate people of Marin enjoy the good way of life, but too many of us give little thought to the crying need to sustain our good fortune. We resist the influx of industry by maintaining rigid standards along with a maddeningly circumspective interpretation of regulations, all calculated to discourage interest from investment capital. This attitude may even be defensible if we are motivated by a sincere desire to perpetuate the image of Marin, the Beautiful.

The case for the defense crumbles, however, when too many of us, some of the most ardent and vociferous boosters of Marin, callously and deliberately spend most of our dollars outside Marin County. How can we justify our claim of community interest when we bundle our families in the chariot and drive past so many forlornly deserted local stores to place ourselves dizzily in debt in the "City" emporiums?

Without the sales tax and motor vehicle taxes, to cite only two of many, and the purchasing power of local payrolls, how can we hope to sustain our envied prosperity and finance needed civic improvements? The homeowner cannot shoulder the entire burden, and more tax increases in this direction can only force an inevitable halt to additional construction activity.

If greater values are always available in the City, if wider selections and superior quality were unobtainable in Marin, some measure of justification for the dollar exodus could be found. Such is not the case, however. Cars, any make or model, can be purchased for less money right here at home. Some for almost any goods or services. An undeniable truism is where it costs more to do business, it follows logically that the customer must bear this additional cost. So it must be in the beckoning City. Check it out next time, before you cross that bridge.

Ames Ford has conscientiously tried to make every possible purchase of goods and services from local vendors. Our building construction, a not insignificent project, is in the hands of local talent in every phase. Our activities have generated considerable revenue in taxes and purchasing power through payrolls. We love Marin. We'd like to make it unanimous.

MEDICAL BUILDING FOR NORTHGATE

Construction is scheduled to commence soon on this medical office building at the corner of Las Gallinas Avenue and Northgate Drive in the Northgate Shopping Center. Designed by architect John G. Kelley of San Francisco, the two-story building will be known as the Northgate Medical Center and cost approximately 1.3 million dollars. It will consist of 35,000 square feet of office suites for 40 to 50 doctors with complete auxiliary services. The structure is designed for two wings surrounding a central landscaped court. The developer is Wherritt and Brown of San Francisco.

Army Quietly Reduces Forces In Europe By Another 7,300 Men

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has quietly reduced its forces in Europe by another 7,300 men since the first of the year, it was disclosed yesterday.

That brings to about 22,300 the number of men returned to the United States in little more than a year.

The Army has passed the halfway mark in a gradual reduction of the 40,000-man buildup rushed into effect nearly two years ago, at the height of the Berlin Crisis.

A slight combat-unit reduction is expected before the end of the year when an armored cavalry regiment of about 3,000 to 4,000 men is expected back from Germany.

It appeared likely the Defense Department may have hoped to accomplish the scaling-down process with as little notice as possible to avoid disturbing the nations which might regard it as a weakening of American resolve to defend Europe.

U.S. airlift capability has improved to the extent that the United States is planning a dramatic movement of a full Army division to Europe next month for an exercise which should reassure the Europeans.

State Youth Center Construction Planned

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — First construction on the planned Northern California Youth Center near Stockton is expected to start next March, the State Department of the Youth Authority announced.

The first buildings, for 400 boys, will cost 10 million dollars. Eventual plans call for 12 institutions on the 900-acre site.

Guitarist Due Closing Concert

Flamenco guitarist Benitos Palacios will appear with Lola Montes and her Spanish dancers Sunday at 8:30 p.m. in Forest Meadows, San Rafael. The event closes the Marin Music Chest's 29th summer concert series.

Aside from accompanying the dancers, Palacios will be heard in a group of numbers.

Gates of Forest Meadows will open at 6:30 p.m. There are no reserved seats. Tickets will be available at gates of Forest Meadows.

Cars will be permitted to park on the Coleman School grounds directly back of the stage.

Ex-General Back On Job As Policeman

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A retired Army brigadier general who had the rank of assistant inspector in the San Francisco police department when he left in 1946 for military service returned to police work at that same level yesterday.

There had been a stir in the department over the possibility the return of Edward Penaat might demote the man he replaced. But the finance committee of the board of supervisors has under advisement a request for funds to establish another assistant inspector's job.

Rep. Gubser Might Seek Engle's Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Charles S. Gubser (R-Calif.) said today he is inclined to seek election next year to the Senate seat occupied by Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.).

In a brief statement issued through his office shortly after his departure for Russia, Gubser referred to rumors that Engle will not seek re-election.

In the absence of confirmation of the rumors, he said, "I am presuming that the senator will be a candidate and I wish him the recovery which will make this possible."

"Since my name was suggested as a candidate a few days ago," Gubser continued, "I have given the matter a great deal of thought.

"I do not deny my interest nor that my inclination to seek election to the senate has increased. However, such a major step requires long and considerate thought and I cannot possibly make a decision at this early date."

MOTHER OF 10 DIES IN MINOR CRASH

OROVILLE (AP)—A mother of 10 was killed yesterday in a minor automobile accident.

Mrs. Ruth Simmons Ellis, 39, of Oroville was thrown from her small car when it and a car driven by Oscar Reynolds, 62, Oroville, collided.

Mrs. Ellis and her husband, Jasper, were parents of three boys and seven girls ranging from seven months to 16 years.

State Sets Up Subdivision Unit

A new subdivision unit has been set up in the Sacramento office of the State Division of Real Estate.

The unit will clear all subdivision reports before they are issued. It will carry out requirements of two subdivision bills approved by the 1963 legislature.

It will check subdivision reports to make sure that adequate financial arrangements have been made to carry out the plans. It also will check into out-of-state subdivision offerings.

Completes Training

Marine Pvt. Roger M. Davis, son of Charles W. Davis of 280 Hillside Avenue, Mill Valley, has completed four-week individual combat training at Second Infantry Training Regiment, Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton.

Here's Composite Family On Welfare

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The composite family in California which is receiving aid to needy children has a 33-year-old mother who was an early school drop-out, and her three children.

The state department of social welfare said the average ANC family gets by on less than $200 a month, does not own its own home and has less than $150 in personal property.

The department has just released results of a study of 4 per cent of the 86,400 families which were on the ANC rolls in July, 1962.

Some of the other findings of the survey showed:

1. Six out of 10 ANC families are members of minority groups, mainly Negro or Mexican-American.

2. One out of each 13 families has six or more children.

3. The average time on relief is two years, with one-third receiving aid less than one year.

4. One mother out of eight is employed, mostly in the unskilled or low remunerative occupations, such as service work, domestic help, etc.

5. Only one mother in five has as much as a high school education.

6. Eighty-five per cent of the cases qualify because of the father's absence from the home, 5 per cent because of the father's death, and 9 per cent because of the father's disability.

7. In two-thirds of the absent father cases, his whereabouts is unknown.

8. The average public aid grant is $161 per month.

Tam High Board Meets Monday

A resolution to convey property near Redwood High School to the City of Larkspur to extend Doherty Drive to Lucky Drive and Highway 101 will be discussed by the Tamalpais Union High School District board at 8 p.m. Monday in district headquarters, Larkspur.

The board will hear science, business education, slow learner and administrative summer workshop reports.

The board may award contracts for dictating machine equipment at Redwood and Tamalpais high schools and electronic laboratory equipment at Tamalpais High.

Hiring of a speech therapist and evening school teachers are also on the agenda.

Mental Health Meet

First meeting of the newly created Marin Mental Health Advisory Board will be held Monday at 8 p.m. in room 413 of the Civic Center. County Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker is temporary chairman.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Ross Couple To Entertain Royalty Before The Opera

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Smith of Ross will entertain the King and Queen of Afghanistan at a dinner in the Red Room of the swank Bohemian Club in San Francisco before the opening performance of the San Francisco Opera season tonight. Russ is representing the Asia Foundation and co-hosts are two representatives of the World Affairs Council.

Queen Homaira, follows the admonition "When in Rome do as the Romans do," so she bought a formal gown in Rome and will wear it with the gorgeous crown jewels at the dinner and opera. The king and queen will arrive with King Mohammed Zahir to be seated in the opera box with Kurt Herbert Adler, opera director, and Mrs. Adler.

Others in box seats will be Leon and Nana Smith of Ross and Mrs. Les Vogel of Kent Woodlands. They'll be in the box of Mr. and Mrs. James E. French Jr. Leon and Nana will have dinner with Mr. and Mrs. French at their home in San Francisco at 1100 Union Street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Geller of San Rafael will also attend the performance of Aida tonight. They will have dinner with friends at Doro's before the opera. The Gellers are opera lovers and intend to attend many other performances.

And Mrs. Milton H. Esberg of Ross will be unable to be in her box at the opera house because of serious injuries suffered in an automobile accident in August. However, she will be represented by her son, Milton Esberg Jr., and his wife.

LINDA McCALL, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McCall of Greenbrae, will ride her horse, Diamond Jim, in the all-junior show at Circle V ranch in Fairfax Sunday.

VALERIE GROSS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Gross of Mill Valley, has arrived home from a trip to the East Coast just in time to start school.

She left Aug. 17 with the David Reeds and their four children, who were moving to New York City to live while Mr. Reed attends the Union Theological Seminary. The Reeds were prominent in music at circles and the Community Church of Mill Valley.

En route they stopped for a week's visit with the Reeds' relatives in Winterset, Iowa, and arrived in New York on Aug. 30.

After a week of sightseeing in New York, Valerie spent last weekend in Fairfax, Virginia with the family of the Pierpont (Pete) Bucks, who formerly lived in Mill Valley.

IN AN AUTUMN THEME

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM FERLATTE

Donna Manuel Weds William J. Ferlatte

Donna Irene Manuel became the bride of William Joseph Ferlatte on Saturday at St. Rita's Church in Fairfax in an afternoon ceremony.

The Rev. Jeremiah Gleeson officiated at the nuptials, for which the bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white peau de soie gown trimmed with bands of Swiss embroidery and ending in a chapel-length train.

Cynthia Cate was maid of honor and the other attendants were Sandra Whelan, Mary Bennett and twin flower girls, Sandra and Shelli Dean. The attendants wore willow green sheath dresses.

William Ranney was best man for the bridegroom, and ushering were David and Douglas Manuel and James Purcell.

The bride, who is the daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Guy D. Manuel of Fairfax, attended Sir Francis Drake High School and the College of Marin.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ferlatte of San Rafael. He was graduated from Marin Catholic High School and the College of Marin and is a student at Humboldt State College.

Novato WSCS Sale To Open On Sept. 19

"Wonderful Things" is the theme for the bazaar and rummage sale sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Novato Community Methodist Church to open at 9 a.m. on Sept. 19, 20 and 21. The sale will be held in the new social hall of the church.

Displays of art, a spaghetti dinner Friday night and coffee served each day between 3 and 4 p.m. will be featured, Mrs. Charles Simmons, chairman, said.

Four artists who are members of the church will have paintings on display. Mrs. Herbert Johnson has donated four paintings to the Woman's Society to be offered at silent bid. Others displaying work are Mrs. Otto Larson, Mrs. Stanford Warner and Mrs. Paul Mobley.

The Methodist Men's Club will prepare and serve the spaghetti dinner. Committee includes Gail Schenck, Robert Lowe, Arthur Howell, Joe Crumpler, Bill Moore, Bill William Howard, Dan Barber, Robert Morse and Victor Willwerth.

Hospital's Volunteers Plan A Tea

Guests will include Dan E. Andersen, president of the Board of Trustees of the Hospital Foundation; Mrs. Lawrence McNear, Mrs. Illona Bellak, superintendent of nursing; Mrs. Georgianna McCarty, Miss Edythe Foster and Mrs. Leiton Elder.

CARLENE CONRADI

Carlene Conradi Will Wed Captain Of Steamship Line

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Conradi of Kent Woodlands are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Carlene, to Roderick Fraser.

The bride-elect was graduated from Redwood High School and attended the University of Arizona.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Fred Allan of Menlo Park and the late John Fraser. He is employed as captain with the American President Lines.

Layered Look

New suits have a complete look, often "layered." A wool suit is underscored with wool, sleeveless pullover, buttoned in back. Seven-eighth skimmer coats are worn with lighter-weight matching skimmer dress. The highly important cape-suit is debonair with turtle neck, sheer wool blouse.

Newlyweds Will Reside In San Jose

The Church of Assumption in San Leandro was the setting of the wedding of Lorraine Kay Cooper and Chris W. Avery of Novato Sept. 1. The Rev. Thomas Browne performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Cooper of San Leandro, was accompanied down the aisle by her father. She wore a full-length silk organza gown over taffeta with applique of Chantilly lace on the bodice.

Her maid of honor, Maureen O'Connor of San Leandro, and bridesmaids, Julie Cuintini of Castro Valley and Nancy Doak of San Leandro, wore identical street-length gowns of azalea pink peau de soie. Lorraine is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Cooper of Monrovia.

Richard Rush of Novato was best man for Chris, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Avery of Novato. Roger Bowen of San Jose and Steve Avery, brother of the bridegroom, were ushers.

The young couple will make their home in San Jose, where they are both seniors at San Jose State College. Lorraine is a student nurse and Chris, who graduated from Novato High School, is a mathematics major.

In Sportive Mood

Marin MAGAZINE

Bright reading for the whole week

Featured this Saturday:

That grandfather's clock of yours may go bong now, but clock dealers who know say that it soon may go boom. Yes, there is a big boom in antique clock collecting. There are more collectors and fewer clocks every day. Consequently, the value is soaring. In tomorrow's Independent-Journal Marin Magazine, Frank Farrara writes about clocks and clock collectors. He found it a timely subject.

You usually think of an artist as a man in a slouch hat and sandals. It hardly seems possible that an Eskimo in a parka would have time from his seal hunting to do any creative work. But Marin Magazine tomorrow will carry several Eskimo prints that show there are many North Country artists of stature. It's part of a show at the Frances Young Gallery, Ross.

Recognizing the importance of childrens books and the importance of encouraging youngsters to read them, Marin Magazine tomorrow carries a page of juvenile listings that will guide both parents and boys and girls in making selections. Readers will also be delighted by a review from 11-year-old Bebe Jill Anderson who has joined the I-J's list of critical readers.

Marin's own magazine . . . picturing and reporting life in Marin today . . . personalities, recreation, coming events, book reviews, gardening, music, home improvement, weekly TV log. A week of good reading. Look for it, Saturdays.

Ann Goldblatt Becomes A Bride In Mill Valley Garden Ceremony

The garden of the Mill Valley home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Goldblatt, was the setting for the marriage on Saturday of Ann Goldblatt and David King of Belvedere.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lord King of Belvedere.

Judge Linn of the San Francisco Municipal Court, a longtime family friend, performed the single ring ceremony at 3 p.m. It was attended by relatives only, but some 200 guests were invited for the reception which was held in the garden immediately following the nuptial rites.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an informal afternoon dress of wheat colored Italian silk.

After a honeymoon spent at Kauai, the young couple will live in Berkeley, where they will be doing graduate work at the University of California.

Both were graduated from Tamalapais High School and from the University of California after attending Reed College in Oregon for their first two years.

Ann has two sisters, Lee Francis Goldblatt, a student at the University of California, and Elizabeth Goldblatt, a student at San Francisco State College. Their grandmother is Mrs. Boris Goldblatt, who came from Hollywood for the wedding.

David is the brother of Mrs. Stuart Levine of Princeton, N.J. and John Lord King Jr. of Sausalito.

Novato Auxiliary Members Win Citations At Conclave

Gold citations were awarded to three members of the Donald V. Westlund Auxiliary, No. 7816, Veterans of Foreign Wars of Novato, at the state convention in Fresno.

The awards for outstanding work were presented to Mrs. David Heiffner for civil defense; Mrs. Harold Harker, ways and means and Mrs. Grover Owen, publicity.

The auxiliary will present an American flag to the Novato Senior Citizens at their meeting on Tuesday. Mrs. Harker will make the presentation.

Mrs. William Brannagan of Napa, 16th district president, will make her anual inspection will make her annual inspection of the auxiliary on Sept. 19.

Red Cross Pilot Project Expands

Because the pilot project initiated last year was so successful, the Marin Chapter American Red Cross and the Reed Union School District hope to expand the Gray Lady program this year.

A dozen Gray Ladies have been assisting Mrs. Katherine De Brecht, the district nurse, in two schools. They have helped with eye and ear tests, have kept records and rendered first aid.

The district hopes to extend the service to all of the district schools. It is not necessary to have a child in school to serve. An intensive training program is offered to those interested.

Included are First Aid, Room 14 Reed School 8 to 10 p. m. starting Sept. 18 and continuing for five weeks, through Oct. 16.

Home Nursing, Sept. 23, 10 a. m. to noon at the home of Mrs. Alan Ehrenberg, 6 Windward Rd., Belvedere.

Red Cross and Gray Lady orientation, Oct. 1, 10 a. m. to noon at the same address.

A coffee party is planned to explain the program at the Ehrenberg home on Monday from 10 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. Mrs. Ehrenberg is coordinating the program.

Santa Barbara Will Be Home Of C. M. Cooneys

Santa Barbara will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Michael Cooney, who were married Saturday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Cooney of Kentfield.

The bride, who is the former Michele Louise Pritchett, is the daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Pritchett of Corte Madera and Stuart T. Pritchett of South Fork, Calif. She was graduated from Redwood High School and attended Humboldt State College.

The bridegroom was graduated from Redwood High School and is a student at the University of California at Santa Barbara. He is the grandson of Mrs. Cordelia W. Tuttle of San Francisco.

Novato Presbyterian Group To Hear Talk By Missionary

MRS. LLEWELLYN

Mrs. Frank B. Llewllyn, retired Presbyterian missionary from West Pakistan, will speak at the United Presbyterian Women's Assn. of Novato meeting at 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday.

Mrs. Llewllyn, who is a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Vallejo, spent 37 years in missionary work with her husband. Most of their work was done in Punjab, but they were also in Ferozepur, Lahore and Ludhiana, in teaching and executive positions.

She was born in India, where her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas E. Holliday, were missionaries for the United Presbyterian Church.

Women of the association will model a collection of costumes that Mrs. Llewllyn brought back from Pakistan. Mrs. R. W. Casady is chairman. Hostesses are Mesdames Roy Peterson and Steven Boyko.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Correct Technique Better Than Stealing At Bridge

If you were taught right from wrong, you know that it's wicked to steal.

If you were taught by a bridge player, you know that it's foolish to steal what already belongs to you.

Opening lead — ♣ Q

West opened the queen of clubs and continued the suit, forcing South to ruff. Declarer led a trump to the ace, discovering the bad break, drew another trump, then led a spade to dummy and ruffed dummy's last club.

TWO SPADES

South continued with two more spades and then gave West his trump trick. West couldn't afford to return a club since dummy would ruff and let South discard a diamond. West had to lead diamonds in such a way as to get two diamond tricks.

West had three diamonds, but only one of the three was his correct play at this stage.

Any play will produce two diamonds if East has the ace. No play will work if South has both the ace and queen. Only one play is right if East has the queen.

TRAPS QUEEN

If West leads the low diamond, dummy plays low, and East's queen is trapped. South captures the queen with the ace and then leads a diamond toward dummy's jack.

If West leads the king of diamonds, South refuses the trick (if he suspects what is going on).

Any continuation then traps East's queen. Most good defenders would lead the king of diamonds in the hope of stealing a diamond trick by deceiving South.

ACTUALLY PLAYED

When the hand was actually played, West was Milton Vernoff, veteran Los Angeles bridge star and insurance executive. Vernoff took out insurance by returning the ten of diamonds.

South had to play dummy's Jack to have any chance at all. East covered with the queen, and South won with the ace.

ALMANAC

The moon is approaching new phase. The morning star is Jupiter. The evening stars are Saturn, Mars and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1759, the British defeated the French in the French and Indian War on the plains of Abraham overlooking the City of Quebec.

BELVEDERE ISLAND RUSTIC EARLY AMERICAN with VIEW OF LAGOON

NEATLY tucked into a quiet, secluded, well-landscaped site on Belvedere Island, this charming Early American home was designed and built by a master-craftsman. Select grades of redwood, ash, and mahogany provide warmth to every room. Hvy beams for the 15 ft. high living room ceiling were milled to order. Used brick wash selected for the fireplace, one entry wall and for the built-in barbecue. The home was designed to capture the view of the lagoon from the living room, the dining rm, the family room, two of the three bedrooms and from the veranda. There are countless built-in features, ample storage and parking, & wooded grounds attractively planted with care-free flowering shrubs. Shown by appointment.

JAMES GALLAGHER REALTY

310 Sir Francis Drake Blvd., San Anselmo
456-6262

$19,250 This Will Open Your Eyes!

If you are just starting out, or if you want to retire, this home will fill your needs. Just a hop, skip and a jump to the United Market, San Francisco bus and church. We have listed on a level 50x135 lot, a compact 2 bedroom home excellently maintained with cheerful immaculate kitchen, fireplace in living room, 2 bedrooms with connecting bath, rose garden in front. It's now vacant. Possession immediate.

$20,500 Brand Spanking New!

First there were three, but so well received by the buying public that two are sold before completion. Here is the reasons why. Distinctively styled and accentuated by oriental design. The lot size is 7500 feet. Roof of heavy washed river rock, exterior of cedar shingle, a complete electric kitchen. Brick fireplace, intercom system, double detached garage. It's unique and different and we invite your inspection.

This is a brand new home in San Anselmo on an absolutely level ¼ acre. Walk to Brookside elementary school, to Drake Hi, to S.F. commute bus. Enjoy a half dozen fruit trees. Live in a new home, a contemporary modern, electric kitchen, free standing wrought iron fireplace, 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, 90% loan @ 6% for 30 years. May we show it to you?

$29,500 A Home is being Born.

This builder found a level lot with 3 giant redwoods & a pine tree, located in desireable Morningside Court. He had Harold Lezzini design the home & incorporated 1500 sq. ft. embodying 3 bedrooms, 2 full baths, Swedish corner fireplace, family room, complete electric kitchen, exposed the ceiling beams, add a double garage, took advantage of the existing shrubs & plants. Wally to wall carpeting will be installed at buyers selection. It turned out well. It's listed exclusively with this office. Be our guest.

$29,750 We Will Buy It!!!

If you don't. Present owners have bought another home. We have guaranteed the sale of this one. This is like the meat the butcher brings home. Custom built by Nicolaisen with an attentive eye to quality construction and meeting the owners rigid requirements. A corner lot enhanced by gracious live oaks. In 1955 a 3 bedrooms, 2 bath home, redwood paneled living room with fireplace, golden ash paneling in electric kitchen. Then a family room with large Sonoma stone fireplace plus huge additional bedroom & bath was added. Almost completed and waiting for you.

$31,500 If there is a Better Buy in Marin?

Please show us. Here is a home in Sleepy Hollow with everything in it. Tremendous sweeping view yet not a single step. A ½ acre site and a ranch style home just 3 years young. Kitchen completely electric with all built-ins. Master bedroom suite with double wardrobe closets, colored bath fixtures, walk out the sliding glass doors to a patio, sheltered, private & a profusion of colorful shrubs. Expansive living room with paneled fireplace wall & built-in bookcases, 2 additional large bedrooms & bath. Location—Sleepy Hollow with excellent elementary school just 3 blocks.

$31,950 The Lights of the Bay

Omnipresent always from this San Rafael beauty located amidst beautiful oaks. Easy commute with schools close by. All large bedrooms, ample closet & storage area. 3 bedrooms, den or dark room, family room easily completed. Meticulously maintained & a pleasure to show.

$39,950 A New Listing in Ross

An older home, it's true, but remodeled with the new. A ¾ acre setting enriched by oaks & pines. Soft sylvan view of Mt. Tamalpais and the Seminary castle. Three bedrooms & 2 baths, kitchen all electric, 4 blocks to the bus. If Ross is in your future plans, call us now, 'cause these don't last!

$42,500 Once in a Blue Moon

A listing such as this. We believe that the spreading oak tree in the front is the largest in the entire County of Marin. An 18x34 heated swimming pool, sun drenched from morning till night. Every single bit of landscaping has been completed. Sprinkler system for easy maintenance. A soft blue ranch style home owner built and owner occupied, designed to capture outdoor delights and indoor entertaining. Three bedrooms, 2 baths, completely modern kitchen, carpet and drapes will remain. A home to enjoy to relax and reflecting a dignity and charm of its very own.

$62,750 The Plain Unvarnished Truth!!!

All these appointments are contained here in this residence in a setting of sheer beauty. Set on a superb ½ acre site with an electrifying Bay view. English privet hedges, extensive fieldstone rockwork, hillside cover of rosemary, all highlighted by 16x36 radiant heated swimming pool. The residence proper with impressive entrance foyer, luxurious carpeting throughout. Expansive living room highlighted by floor to ceiling flagstone fireplace. Additional brick fireplace in family room, inviting informal entertaining. All 3 bedrooms are extra large, 2½ baths, intercom system, separate laundry room. All done in excellent taste with dignity & character in evidence throughout. Shown by appointment.

SUMMONS
No. 37964

ELSIE STUART, Plaintiff
ROBERT L. JOHNSON; CALIFORNIA PACIFIC TITLE AND TRUST COMPANY, a California corporation; TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY, a California corporation and successors in title and interest to CALIFORNIA PACIFIC TITLE AND TRUST COMPANY, a California Corporation; and ALL PERSONS UNKNOWN claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property described in the complaint adverse to plaintiff's ownership or any cloud upon plaintiff's title thereto, Defendants.

The People of the State of California,

TO: ROBERT L. JOHNSON; CALIFORNIA PACIFIC TITLE AND TRUST COMPANY, a California corporation; TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY, a California corporation and successors in title and interest to CALIFORNIA PACIFIC TITLE AND TRUST COMPANY, a California Corporation; and ALL OTHER PERSONS UNKNOWN claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property described in the complaint adverse to plaintiff's ownership or any cloud upon plaintiff's title thereto, Defendants:

You are hereby directed to appear and answer the complaint of the above named plaintiff, filed in the above entitled Court in the above entitled action brought against you in said Court, within ten (10) days after the service upon you of this Summons if served within the above named county, or within thirty (30) days if served elsewhere.

You are hereby notified that unless you so appear and answer, the said plaintiff will take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the complaint as arising upon contract, or will apply to the Court for any other relief demanded in the complaint.

The object of this action is to make the above named defendants set forth the nature of their claim or claims to the real property in the complaint and hereinafter described, if any they have, and that such claim or claims be adjudged of no effect and void, and that plaintiff's title to said real property be quieted against them.

The real property is situated in the City of Mill Valley, County of Marin, State of California, and more particularly described as follows:

COMMENCING at the Southerly corner of Lot 14, as said lot is shown and designated on "Map of Heckman Tract Subdivision of Lots 1, 2, 3, Block 3, Tamalpais Land and Water Company Map No. 7", filed in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Marin, State of California, in Map Book 3 at page 8, on March 3rd, 1909; running thence along the Easterly line of Heckman Street as shown on said Map, North 15° 24' East 79.0 feet, thence leaving Heckman Street, South 73° 59' East 79.8 feet to a point on the East line of said Lot 14, distant 21.6 feet Southerly from the Northeast corner of said Lot 14; thence Southerly along the Easterly line of said Lot 14, 80.4 feet to the Northerly line of Evergreen Avenue as shown on said Map; thence Westerly along the Northerly line of said Evergreen Avenue 105.0 feet to the place of commencement.

BEGINNING at the Southeasterly corner of Lot 14, as the same is shown on that certain Map entitled, "Map of Heckman Tract, Subdivision of Lots 1, 2 and 3, Block 3, Tamalpais Land and Water Company Map No. 7", filed March 3, 1909 in Map Book 3 at page 8, Marin County Records, and running thence along the Easterly line of said Lot 14, North 2° 29' West 80.4 feet more or less to a point distant on said line, South 2° 29' East 21.6 feet from the Northeasterly corner of said lot, thence North 73° 59' West 1.20 feet, thence South 0° 05' West 81.02 feet, more or less to the Southerly line of said Lot, thence along said line, South 74° 36' East 5.0 feet to the point of commencement.

Computer Fails Tests In Working On Stomach Ache

By DELOS SMITH

NEW YORK (UPI) — One of science's most complex tools, the computer, and mathematical probability theory have been applied to a perennial medical question—what causes a stomach ache?

Three medical scientists asked eight questions of the where-does-it-hurt? how-does-it-hurt? and when-does-it-hurt? variety to 204 men and women in the throes of that distressing malady.

X-ray studies confirmed the number of times the answers indicated a basic reason for the aches. From that information, the scientists got the mathematical probability of any given answer or combination of answers revealing the cause.

With all this information they "primed" their computer. Then they turned to 98 more men and women with stomach ache and asked them the same eight questions.

The answers were fed into the computer and the crucial question was put to the mechanical brain, which was: What causes the stomach ache of this person? It was answered with the split-second speed for which the computer is celebrated.

But the scientists were interested in the accuracy of the answers more than in split seconds. In accuracy the computer was no match for the discerning physician feeling his way while asking questions and checking his deductions with X-ray.

In identifying the patients whose stomach aches were due to hiatus hernia the computer was 73 per cent accurate, and in spotting those with gall stones it was 75 per cent accurate. These were its best guesses.

It was only 27 per cent accurate with gastric ulcer, 33 per cent with gastric cancer and 38 per cent with those patients whose aches were "functional," that is, their food hadn't "agreed" with them.

Drs. Joseph A. Rinaldo Jr., Perry Scheinok and C. E. Rupe of the Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, were not letting a computer do the diagnosing for them. They were trying to find out how accurately a computer will be able to answer diagnostic questions when medical science learns how to "prime" one with all the answers.

They chose to test stomach aches for several reasons. "Epigastric" distress has reactions which the victims can describe plainly and locate anatomically. Laboratory and X-ray procedures will check the victim's reactions — and a computer's answers — with absolute accuracy.

In reporting to the American College of Physicians the scientists said the computer's accuracy would improve when it could be "primed" with the answers to more than eight questions. These answers constitute a rundown of symptoms the scientists called "profiles."

"One intriguing possibility for the future is the construction of a library of symptom profiles that will make available to the physician in his office the conditional probabilities of specific sets of symptoms presented by patients," they said.

But for the present, they added, the computer is "an excellent teaching tool for medical students, interns and residents" and no more.

Science Plan Set For Dixie

Supt. Dennie B. Willis told the Dixie School District board Wednesday night he will prepare a plan for making time available for teachers to learn to do a better job of teaching science.

Penrod Moss, Dixie curriculum consultant, gave the board a report on the National Science Institute he attended this summer at Cambridge, Mass., and demonstrated science teaching devices which have been proposed for science classes.

Showing pieces of wood, wire, magnets, and meters, he commented, "It would be a great waste to put this equipment into our classroom tomorrow, even though we have a great deal of it coming into the district now as a gift to the institute. The important factor is not the equipment, but its use in teaching scientific methods of inquiry."

Mariner Cove Working On School Buses

Efforts to get bus transportation to Neil Cummins School for 78 seventh and eighth grade pupils living east of Highway 101 in Corte Madera have been started by the Mariner Cove Improvement Assn.

Directors estimated there there are 200 students living in the area and attending either Neil Cummins or Redwood High School.

The association last year arranged transportation for the high school students. At that time the Larkspur School District transported the elementary pupils—then dropped the program after failure of a tax increase election last June.

Herbert Leney, association president, said Gilbert Slusher, Larkspur district financial coordinator, agreed to cooperate with parents to arrange transportation at 35 cents a day per child for Neil Cummins pupils, tickets to be bought one month in advance.

He asked that parents interested in the program write Slusher at 20 Magnolia Avenue, Larkspur.

Brother Of Missing Fisherman Saved

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Coast Guard patrol boat rescued the brother of two missing fishermen early today when his fishing boat went out of control and threatened to go on the rocks off Point Bonita.

Fred A. Cefalu of Moro Bay, was aboard the vessel Ellie III, which was taken in tow and brought into San Francisco Bay, the Coast Guard said.

Cefalu and other crewmen of the Ellie III had been helping in the search for the 36-foot fishing craft, Lilliane, which sank 40 miles southwest of the Golden Gate Wednesday night. Aboard the Lilliane were Thomas and Joseph Cefalu.

The railway postoffice, a railroad car in which mail is sorted and distributed en route, was first put in regular service on the Chicago and Northwestern Railway in 1864.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Nervousness, More Than Diet, Can Cause Spasms In Lower Intestine

VAN DELLEN

The irritable bowel is responsible for more abdominal distress than any other intestinal disorder. The diet usually is blamed but in most instances the nervous system is at fault. The bowel is as tense as its master. Victims usually have discomfort when tired and under stress and feel good when calm, relaxed, and rested.

Spasm of the bowel wall brings pain. Severe contractions may hinder the passage of the bowel contents, leading to constipation or nanny goat stools. Gas forms above the area of spasm, which causes distention and more pain. Now and then the mucous secreting glands are overactive (mucous colitis). This combination is responsible for a train of symptoms including abdominal pain, cramping, tenderness, and irregular bowel behavior ranging from constipation to frequent mucous stools.

THE NERVOUS system enters the picture because it controls the muscles encircling the wall of the bowel. Some nerve fibers stimulate and others relax the intestine. Those that contract the muscles are stronger than the nerves that relax. As a result, the colon wall is thrown into a state of spasm whenever emotions disturb the individual. The muscles relax when the crisis is past.

Many of those bothered along this line are more nervous and unstable than average. Some have an inherent sense of insecurity and inadequacy, which makes them seek material success. This may explain why so many sufferers are prominet and wealthy.

OTHERS ARE JUST plain folk who find it difficult to cope with the stress of modern living. They are not bothered, so long as the demands of the family or the boss are reasonable and within the limits of their capacity. But spasms develop when their work load or responsibilities increase and they begin to feel the pinch. The frustration and anxiety associated with such situations are tolerated for a while, but ultimately the spastic colon becomes a nuisance unless the individual gains insight into the problem and takes corrective measures.

Several good drugs are available for relief of pain. A bland diet also helps. But attacks will recur until the victim realizes his limitations and avoids trying and troublesome situations.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

SLEEPING PILLS

Mrs. M. B. writes: My doctor prescribed sleeping pills but they make me nervous. Did you ever hear of this reaction?

REPLY

LIVER INVOLVEMENT

S. M. writes: What makes the liver enlarge?

REPLY

A variety of conditions, including infections, poisoning, cirrhosis from drinking, congestion from heart disease, and blood disorders such as leukemia.

WATER AND DROPSY

E. D. writes: Does drinking too much water cause dropsy in older persons?

REPLY

No, but it might hasten or aggravate dropsy if the individual has heart disease, cirrhosis of the liver, or poorly functioning kidneys.

PITFALLS

R. L. writes: I eat lots of grapes but throw away the pits. Friends tell me the best part of the grape is the pit. Is this true?

REPLY

Jobs Become Acute U.S. Racial Issue

By JACK LEFLER

NEW YORK (AP) — With Negro organizations and many federal, state and local governmental agencies pressing for a better break for Negro workers, hiring practices and contests for jobs have become an acute issue.

As a result of these pressures, there have been some questions raised whether a reverse discrimination — against white workers — might develop.

A survey of some of the nation's major industrial centers showed that more Negroes are being hired for better jobs but it also indicated there is no great rush to provide employment for them on the basis of race.

On the other hand, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, who heads President John F. Kennedy's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity, said industry had exceeded expectations in providing more and better jobs for non-whites.

Promotion of three Negroes to postoffice supervisory jobs, although they were lower than 53 white men on the established merit scale, set off a furor in Dallas.

Eleven high-ranking white postal workers filed suit against the Post Office Department, claiming they were discriminated against because of their race.

A Seattle employment agency operator reported two instances in the last month in which white workers complained they had lost their jobs because they had been replaced with Negroes.

Dudley Cameron, deputy area manager of the California Department of Employment in San Francisco, reported an increasing inclination to hire Negroes.

In New York City, two members of the City Commission on Human Rights suggested that racial bias in the building trades might be eased by favoring Negroes over white applicants for apprenticeship.

About 70 St. Louis area firms have made efforts since the first of this year to hire Negroes for the first time on jobs other than menial capacity. Negro leaders and employment experts said that there have been no complaints of discrimination in reverse.

The Michigan Fair Employment Practices Commission pointed out that employment quotas based on race would be against state law. It said it had processed a few reverse discrimination complaints several months ago.

Five big Chicago downtown banks invited the Chicago Urban League to help them recruit more Negro employees. Edwin C. Perry, executive director of the league, said the jobs range from page girl to management trainee.

Archie Williams, chairman of the Boston Labor and Industry Committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said there has been no rush to employ Negroes but there has been a rush to set the groundwork to get more jobs for Negroes.

A definite increase in requests for Negroes to fill jobs in industry and business was noted by Ernest Cooper, executive director of the Urban League in Cleveland. He said many of the orders are from firms that have tried perhaps one Negro, found that it has worked and are back for more.

'U.S. Defense Waste'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Defense department wastes 8.2 million dollars through insistence of separate operation of Letterman Army General Hospital at San Francisco and Oak Knoll Naval Hospital at Oakland, Sen. John J. Williams, (R-Del.), told the Senate yesterday.

$32 Per Student Is Spent For Counseling

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California school districts have been spending about $32 per student in secondary schools to strengthen guidance and counseling services.

The estimate comes from reports from 147 school districts to the State Department of Education.

Of the $32, $30 came from local funds and $2 from National Defense Education Counselors. Most was used for salaries of counselors and their clerks.

A typical fulltime counselor was assigned 375 counselees last year.

MARIN FILM FARE

'Toys In Attic' Opening Sunday

By LES DARD

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Martin plays a perpetual ne'er-do-well, a man who's made a career of failure. But suddenly, this time, he returns to New Orleans and the family home with his pockets full and accompanied by a beautiful blonde bride, Yvette Mimieux.

To his surprise, neither the sisters nor his new wife are honestly happy about his unexpected success. As the plot unfolds we see how each of the women, in her own way, loved the man not in spite of his failures—but because of them.

RAFAEL THEATER

New methods versus old in the treatment of mental illness is the sensitive issue in "The Caretakers," starring Robert Stack, Joan Crawford, Polly Bergen and Herbert Marshall. It opens Sunday.

Stack plays a staff psychiatrist in a state hospital, a man determined to bring light into a darkened world. He crusades for fewer restraints on emotionally ill patients.

His chief opposition in the old guard is head nurse Joan Crawford, a veteran who feels her life work is negated by Stack's new ideas and ideals. Marshall backs her up as the hospital's superintendent.

Polly Bergen stars as a young housewife suffering from a breakdown. She is lashed in restrainers at first, then given shock treatment. Eventually, she serves to demonstrate the effectiveness of Stack's theories.

SEQUOIA THEATER AND 101 DRIVE-IN

Billy Wilder's treatment of the hit stage musical eliminates the music, but the story of a Parisian woman of the street who tries to give up her trade because her innocent boy friend objects nevertheless comes off successfully.

NOVATO THEATER

"Spencer's Mountain," folksy family comedy-drama starring Henry Fonda and Maureen O'Hara, arrives Sunday.

Filmed in glorious Grand Tetons National Park, it concerns a dirt-poor farm family determined to send the eldest son to college. The youth, James MacArthur, messes things up somewhat by romancing a rich little lass, Mimsy Farmer.

Co - featured is "Island of Love," a raucous farce about a con-man whose girl friend talks him into financing a movie version of Genesis so she can play Eve. It stars Robert Preston, Tony Randall, Betty Bruce and Walter Matthau.

MOTOR MOVIES

Bette Davis and Joan Crawford are teamed in what was surely last year's most bizarre film, "Whatever Happened to Baby Jane?", a lurid drama of hate and revenge.

Two aging actresses—one a cripple—live out obscure, tortured lives in an old Hollywood mansion. One was a child dancing star — Baby Jane — who never made the grade in grown-up movies and blames the other. Jolly little plot about how Miss Davis tries to kill off the crippled Miss Crawford.

Co - featured is "Summer Place," the story of six people involved in intense adult and adolescent passions. The six are Richard Egan, Constance Ford, Dorothy McGuire, Arthur Kennedy, Sandra Dee and Troy Donohue.

FAIRFAX THEATER

With us another week is "Mutiny on the Bounty," starring Marlon Brando and Trevor Howard in the film version of the famous Nordhoff and Hall adventure.

Photography of the specially constructed Bounty as she sails away from England and in the breathtaking blue of the Pacific is spectacular. The film is expertly done in every way.

Unusual is the interpretation of his Fletcher Christian role by Brando. Those who remember Clark Gable as a robust seafarer will be surprised to see the Bounty's first mate portrayed as a fop, a dandy whose masculinity is concealed until the film's climax.

Trevor Howard pictures Captain Bligh not as a caricature of cruelty, but as a dedicated naval officer trying to make a showing.

LARK THEATER

Held over again is the superlative "L-Shaped Room," a poignant dramatization that ranks among the best British films.

Leslie Caron achieves singular triumph as the brave little French girl who comes to a London slum to bear her illegitimate child. The oddly-shaped room in which she takes refuge emerges as part of a strange world of bizarre personalities.

It is in the remarkable characterizations of these peculiar people that the film develops its rare charm.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

"Hud" portrays a bitter moral conflict between a father who is all good and a son who is all bad. Paul Newman plays the son, Melvyn Douglas the father.

Journal Warns LSD Might Cripple Mind

CHICAGO (UPI)—The American Medical Assn. Journal warned today that the drug LSD-25 and similar drugs that alter sensory perception have the power to cripple the mind permanently.

An editorial in the current Journal said accumulating evidence "demonstrates that these drugs have the power to damage the individual psyche, indeed cripple it for life."

Pope Paul Accepts Bishop's Resignation

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope Paul VI today accepted the resignation of a Roman Catholic bishop in Scotland who refused a Vatican order to fire his housekeeper.

The pope named Dr. Francis Walsh, 61, the bishop of Aberdeen, to the titular bishophric of Birtha, a strictly honorary title. The announcement gave no reason for the resignation. But the bishop hit the headlines earlier this year when he refused to fire Mrs. Ruby MacKenzie, 42, a divorcee who keeps house for him.

Intermediate Bridge Class Begins Sept. 24

Cleone Myers of Kentfield will be instructor for the course from 10 a.m. to noon Tuesdays in the Northgate Building. Play will stress modern bidding and defense.

Two Marin Youths Enlist In Navy

James Kevin Maloney, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald K. Maloney of 59 Manzanita Road, Fairfax, enlisted for four years as a Navy hospitalman. William Robertson McGregor Jr. of 1108 Las Gallinas Avenue, Terra Linda, signed up for three years as a seaman. Both were sent to the San Diego Naval Training Center for recruit training.

California leads all other states in the production of frozen dairy products, with 98,186,000 gallons in 1962. Pennsylvania is second with 84,636,000 gallons and New York, third with 79,628,000.

EXECUTIVE HEART ATTACK RATE LOW

Top Management Officials Not More Prone To Trouble Than Clerical Help

CHICAGO (UPI)—A heavy load of responsibility at the office apparently does not make top management officials more prone than clerical workers to coronary attacks, researchers reported today.

An article in the current Jaurnal of the American Medical Assn. reported that among personnel of a large industrial firm, the heart attack rate of executives was 2.2 per thousand compared with four per thousand among clerical workers.

"Stress cannot be measured or discribed by the external circumstances with which a person must contend, but rather by his reactions to these circumstances," Dr. Sidney Pell and C. Anthony D'Alonzo, Wilmington, Del., said. "One man's stress may be another man's pleasure."

In men under 45 who are both hypersensitive and overweight, they said, the estimated incidence of a heart attack is five times higher than that of men with neither of these conditions.

The six-year study was conducted among employees of the E. I. Du Pont De Nemours Co.

1,198 Tarffic Deaths

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California traffic accidents killed 1,198 person in the first seven months of this year. The toll leads the previous year by 52.
